Seattle Crew Ahead In Most Departments

LOS ANGELES (Special)—The University of Washington, which holds a commanding lead in the Northern Division, dominated individual and team basketball statistics released yesterday by the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner's office.

The dangerous front-line duo of Center Bob Houbregs and Forward Frank Guiness is running one-two in scoring while the Huskies have the best team totals, both offensively and defensively. Houbregs' current scoring average of 16.5 points a game is one of the best in Northern Division history, while his field goal shooting mark of 46.3% is second only to Tom Flynn of Idaho, who has canned 18 of 36 attempts for 50%.

Oregon State's Danny Johnston has shown the best eye from the free throw line, dropping 28 of 33 for 84.8%.

Hunt Tops in Assists

Guiness has averaged 13.5 points a game to rank second in total scoring, followed by Ken Hunt, Oregon, 12.1; Johnston, 11.2, and Eric Roberts, Washington State, 11.0. Hunt's 30 assists in eight games give him a substantial lead in that department while teammate Bob Peterson is the top rebounder with 15.6 per game, followed by Houbregs and Doug McClary, Washington, and Chet Noe, Oregon, 11.6 each.

Washington has scored 59.9 points a game and averaged 34.2% on floor shots in rebounds with a 44.6 average. Washington has committed the fewest field goals, 29.5%.

This weekend Washington travels to Moscow to meet Idaho in a showdown series for the Northern Division title while Oregon and Oregon State meet in two games, Friday at Corvallis and Saturday at Eugene.

The wide-open Southern Division race resumes Friday night with UCLA at Stanford for two games and California meeting Southern Cal in Los Angeles. California has a slim lead at the moment, with four wins and two losses to three-three records for UCLA and Southern Cal and two wins and four defeats for Stanford.

Winter Games Start Today

Meanwhile from Morgedal, the shrine of skiing, an Olympic torch is being carried 170 miles to the capital city by a relay of 100 skiers. It will be used to light the Olympic flame at Friday's ceremonies. Morgedal is where Sondre Norheim was born — the man who first used a ski strap. That's how the whole business started.

The International Olympic Committee, in a day long session, gave Melbourne, Australia, until May 15 to give a positive answer whether it can hold the 1956 Games now that the big cricket grounds there are not available.

If Melbourne says "no" seven American cities are willing and eager—New York, San Francisco, Chicago, Philadelphia, Minneapolis, Detroit and Los Angeles. But unless the United States can agree on only one, she will not have much of a chance.

Hart, Fry Gain Tennis Finals

COLOMBOA, Ceylon (AP)—Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla. and Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, stroked their way into the women's singles final Wednesday in the Asian tennis championships.

Miss Fry, capitalizing on a tricky drop shot, ousted Mrs. Jean Walker-Smith of Great Britain, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3. Miss Fry rallied to defeat Mrs. Joy Mottram, also of Britain, 4-6 6-4, 6-1.

Canuck Hockey Stars Edge Americans, 3-2

PIRATES BUY SEVEN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have purchased seven players from the disbanded New Orleans Eagles of the Negro American League, General Manager Branch Rickey said Tuesday.

'Flexibility' Asked of SSB In Ball Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The salary stabilization board was told Wednesday that it should use "flexibility" in its dealings with baseball, and that so-called bonuses paid some young players should be exempt from pay ceilings.

The recommendations were made by John Kieran, onetime sports columnist for the New York Times and a member of the salary board panel on pro sports.

Kieran said the money paid a youngster to get him to sign his first contract "is, in effect, an outright sale of a property right," not a payment for his services.

Therefore, he reasoned, such bonus payments shouldn't be considered when a club is calculating how much its total payroll can be.

DeMoss Team Out of Meet

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., and J. Wolcott Brown of Manassas, N. J., were the hottest team in Wednesday's quarterfinals of the mixed foursome tournament at the Everglades Club.

They took a 5-up lead over Edeen Anderson of Helena, Mont., and Jack Cendoya of Havana, Cuba, with even par golf on the first nine and finished 13 and one under par in scoring a 6 and 5 victory.

Catherine Fox Park of Bloomfield, N. J., and Tim Holland of Miami downed Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., and Lynn Creason of Harrisburg, Pa.

Musial's 1951 Salary Zooms Up to $80,000

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals got his back pay for 1951—a check for $20,001 Wednesday.

The raise had been held up by the Wage Stabilization Board which only recently gave permission to grant it.

Redbird Owner Fred Saigh said the hike actually was $25,000 but that basic withholding taxes had reduced it to $20,001. He indicated that with the boost Stan's salary for last year was around $80,000, one of the highest in baseball.
