

Eunice Evans, Mr. Ringle Married

Red and white, featuring the Valentine colors and motif, were used in the decorations and gowns of the attendants for the marriage of Miss Eunice Evans and Gordon Ringle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ringle of Salem, on Wednesday night. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jesse Rose of Brunswick, Neb., and Samuel H. Evans of Venus, Neb.

It was at 8 o'clock that the Rev. Seth Huntington officiated at the nuptials at the First Congregational Church. Edith Fairham Gunnar was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist. The altar was banked with bouquets of red and white flowers tied with red bows and the white candelabras were also tied with the red bows. The alternate pews were marked with white satin bows and tapers.

For her wedding the bride chose a becoming floor length white satin and lace gown. The skirt was very full, fashioned with a lace penum and the lace bodice was enhanced with a satin cape which buttoned down the back. Her fingertip length tulle veil cascaded from a lace cap adorned with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Mrs. Eddie C. Barker of McMinnville was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles T. Stoner, also sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jack Moore, cousin of the groom. They wore identical frocks of white net over taffeta with red net sleeves, red Juliet caps and shoes. They carried heart shaped bouquets of red roses, white reeas and bouvardia encircled with red net.

Attend the Groom
Richard Beyer served as best man and seating the guests were Lawrence E. Baer and Charles A. Love.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rose selected a grey gown with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses and freesias. Mrs. Ringle attended her son's marriage in a brown and white print sheer with white hat and white and brown accessories. Her flowers were bronze roses and freesias.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Pouring were Mrs. John L. Benfer, grandmother of the groom, and Mrs. Solon Shinkle Cutting the cake was Mrs. LuVerne Hardwick. Assisting were Mrs. Donald J. Callahan, Mrs. James R. Jones and Miss Ellen Van Arsdale.

After a wedding trip the new-laws will be at home in Salem at 1046 Bellevue St. For going away the bride changed to a beige suit with pink hat and accessories and Kolinsky furs.
