

Annual County Sunday School Meet Feb. 23

Speaks Here

REV. WILLIAM KIRBY

"Who is a Christian" is the theme for the 53rd annual Marion County Sunday School convention Saturday, Feb. 23 at Halbert Memorial Baptist Church, Hayesville.

Fred de Vries of Pratum will preside over the program, beginning at 9:30 a. m. Glenn E. McClellan, vice president, is in charge of arrangements, aided by John Zeeb.

The opening service will be followed by an institute on "The Importance of Certainty in Your Relationship to Christ." Those in charge of the groups are J. A. Rickard and the Rev. Russell Mayer for adults, Lee Brant and the Rev. R. E. Sanders for young people, and Mrs. G. R. Clippell for children.

A solo by Mrs. C. P. Walcher and sermon by the Rev. Paul W. Gunther of Salem will complete the morning.

After a 12:15 basket dinner will be a service at 1:30 and business and election of officers. The Rev. Mr. Sanders will give the invocation. The institute session will have as leaders Ernest Roth and the Rev. C. P. Walcher for adults, George Williams and the Rev. Kenneth Abbott for young people.

The Rev. Wilbert Regier of Pratum will give the closing sermon.

Mission Meet To Take Week For Calvary

Miss Clara Olds, a veteran missionary to the Crow Indians at Lodge Grass, Mont., will initiate a week long conference at Calvary Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7:30.

Men's night, Monday, begins with a dinner at 6:30. The Rev. Raymond Schaefer, recently returned missionary to West China, will speak. At the Tuesday evening Loyalty Class meeting, Miss Sara Louise Walker, Oregon general missionary, is to bring the message.

Wednesday night, a missionary play will be presented by the Sterling Circle. A new film, "The Rivers Still Flow," will be shown on Thursday, the story of the Baptist Indian School at Bacone, Okla. A highlight will be the Friday night testimony dinner. It is expected that a dozen former, present and future missionaries will be present to give brief testimonies.

Bible Series Opens Tuesday

A Bible conference sponsored by Marion County Holiness Association will open Tuesday at Highland Avenue Friends Church.

Speaker will be the Rev. William Kirby, evangelist and former pastor and professor of theology at Pacific Bible College.

Services will be at 10:30 a. m., 2 and 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, 1:30 and 7:30 p. m. Wednesday through Friday, 7:30 p. m. Saturday and a closing rally Sunday, Feb. 24, at 2:30 p. m.

Adult Classes Begin Sunday

A series of adult classes on "The Christian Way of Truth and Life" will begin Sunday at 4 p. m. in St. Mark Lutheran Church, conducted by the Rev. John L. Cauble, pastor.

The public classes will last one hour, devoted to informal discussion of questions about the Bible and the church.

The church will show the film, "Dust or Destiny," at its Sunday night service. Produced by Moody Institute of Science, it depicts the wonders of nature to confirm God's creative works.

Messages will be given by Sam Ojo of Nigeria, Africa; Kiem Yokoi of Japan; and Dr. W. C. Osgood, missionary to Bengal-Orissa.

Dr. Osgood will conclude the conference Sunday evening, Feb. 24.

Northwest EUB Ministers Due Here for Conference, Concert

Annual mid-winter ministers' meeting of the Oregon and Oregon-Washington Conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church will be in Salem Monday to Wednesday.

The conference will be held in First EUB Church, with the Rev. W. N. Brown, a host pastor.

Guest speakers will include Ira D. Warner, bishop of the Pacific area; H. E. Mueller, professor of Biblical literature and practical theology at Western Evangelical Seminary, Portland; and E. Sterl Phinney, professor of church history and the history of religion at Western.

Conference Superintendents C. P. Gates and E. A. Fogg of the Oregon-Washington Conference, and W. C. Hines of the Oregon Conference, will preside. The Rev. Hubert Ulrich of Corvallis will serve as chorister.

Opening service will be at 7:45 Monday evening. Bishop Warner will preach on "The Minister as a Man," and will preside at a service of Holy Communion. A sacred concert will be presented Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock by two male chorus groups, the Gospel Gleemen, composed of ministers from the two conferences, and the Salem Singers, composed of Christian businessmen of Salem. Each chorus will sing several selections, with one group presented by the combined choruses.

Both evening services are open to the public. Daytime sessions will be devoted to periods of devotion and Bible study, and discussion periods on current problems in church work and administration. The conference will conclude Wednesday noon.

Martin Leads Men In Church Meets

Dr. George Martin of Salem is conducting sections on stewardship at three regional meetings being conducted by the laymen's commission of Oregon Congregational churches.

Representatives of 49 churches are attending the meetings, first of which was last Sunday at Beaverton. Next will be Feb. 24 at Clackamas and the last on March 2 in Salem.

Martin is chairman of Willamette University's education department.
