Candy Sale to Benefit Camp

It's peanut brittle time for Salem Camp Fire Girls. Their candy sale to raise funds for their Camp Kilowan starts today to continue through March 1st. Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls will begin an extensive door-to-door selling campaign in Salem, Woodburn, Mill City, Dallas, Monmouth and Vaisetz. At the request of the hundreds who bought the peanut brittle a year ago, the girls are selling peanut brittle again.
 The purpose of the Camp Fire Girls' candy sale is to raise money for Camp Kilowan near Falls City. Development of a sports area on part of the recently acquired seven-acre tract is one of the objectives of this year's sale. The addition of the former Stockwell farm last summer provided Camp Kilowan with many facilities formerly lacking, including the open area to expand such activities as archery and baseball. It also provided additional water right to help maintain an adequate swimming program.
 The Willamette Valley Lumber Company made possible last summer's seventeen-acre addition. They donated to the Camp Fire Girls' Council 80 per cent of the purchase price, and the balance was raised by popular subscription throughout the area.
Five Home Units at Camp
 Besides the five living units which provide housing space for about 85 campers per week, and 20 staff members, other buildings are Tent Lodge, craft house, infirmary, and 5 cabins for program staff.
 Camp Kilowan is owned and operated by the Willamette Area Council of Camp Fire Girls which includes Benton, Marion, and Polk Counties. Camp season consists of six one-week sessions. Located on Teal Creek in the foothills of the Coast Range about 2½ miles from Falls City, the Camp now comprises over thirty-four acres.
 Mrs. Jasper Sutton is chairman of the candy sale. The goal in Salem alone this year is over 6,000 boxes of candy. The girls have their own personal goal, too, as many earn all or part of their way to camp each summer through the candy sale.

AAUW Speaker Is Changed

Dr. Cameron Paulin, head of the Art Department at Willamette University, will be the guest speaker at the AAUW luncheon meeting this afternoon at the Senator Hotel at 1 o'clock, instead of Frederic Littman of the Portland Art Museum as previously announced. Mr. Littman had to cancel his speaking engagement as he is working on a bust of Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Grand Coulee Dam, which must be finished immediately.
 Dr. Paulin will talk on "Modern Painting." He has studied at New York State School of Ceramics at Alfred University, Ohio State College and University of Chicago, where he received his doctor's degree. He taught at the University of Toronto and Iowa State Teachers College, prior to coming to Willamette University.

Program Given by School Board

The regular meeting of the Grant School Mother's Club was held Thursday night at the school. Mrs. Robert Stutzman, retiring president was presented with a gift after turning the gavel over to the new president, Mrs. Clint Siga. Mrs. Melvin Kelley was elected vice-president. Mrs. Laura Gale presented plans for re-decorating the teachers lounge and it was voted to purchase a new davenport.
 "Know Your School Board," was presented by Mrs. David Wright, chairman of the board. Other board members participating were Gardner Knapp, Harry Scott and Gus Moore. Miss Verna Singree's first grade room won the attendance award. The second grade mothers were hostesses with Mrs. Melvin Kelley in charge.
 A junior in pharmacy, Leon Gordon of Salem has been elected secretary of Acacia, national social fraternity at Oregon State College.

Gladys Boock Married to Richard Don

The First Congregational Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Gladys Boock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht Boock, and Richard N. Don, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Don, on Friday night with Dr. Seth Huntington officiating at the 8 o'clock ceremony.
 Decorations of pink and white were used about the church and lighting the white tapers were Vern Boock, brother of the bride and Fred Muir Vern Esch was the soloist, and was accompanied on the organ by Jean Hobson Rich.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white alpper satin gown enhanced with embroidered embroidery. The bodice was fashioned with net yoke and the skirt ended in a full train. Her fingertip veil of net, edged with lace, was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried her Rainbow Bible topped with a white orchid, and for "something old" carried a lace handkerchief given to her by her grandmother Mrs. H. J. Boock.
 Mrs. William Loftis, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her dress was aqua net with matching stole and she carried a bouquet of Fantasy tulips and freesias. Bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Toombs, who wore a yellow net frock, and Miss Alta Hadley, in a green dress. Both carried bouquets of pink tulips and hyacinths. Janet Don, sister of the groom, was the junior bridesmaid. Her dress was pink brocade taffeta, and she carried white tulips and lavender hyacinths.

Attend the Groom.
 Roy Connelly was best man and groomsmen were Don Liudahl and Armond Stapan. Seating the guests were William Loftis, Glen Lukinbeal and Dean Heindrick. Mrs. Boock chose for her daughter's wedding a plum colored suit with pink accessories and Mrs. Don wore a blue dress with navy accessories.
 Following the ceremony the reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. R. Lee Wood and Mrs. Frank Domkowski cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. James Manning and Mrs. Gordon Herrig of Albany. Assisting were Miss Janet MacDonald, Miss Lynn Barrell, Miss Jeanne Herrig, Miss Edna Mae Manning, Miss Diane Don, sister of the groom, Mrs.

Fred Muir, Mrs. L. K. Lawrence and Mrs. Roy Connelly.
 The bride chose for her wedding trip a beige sharkskin suit with brown accessories. They will make their home at 1050 Albert Drive, Salem. Both are graduates of Salem High School and attended Oregon State College, where Mr. Don was affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Lodge to Sponsor Program Series

The B'nai Brith Woman's Lodge of Temple Beth Shalom is sponsoring a series of human relations radio programs beginning this afternoon. The series may be heard on Station KOCO from 5:30 to 5:45 o'clock each Saturday through May 10.

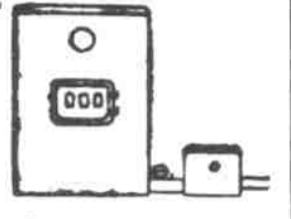

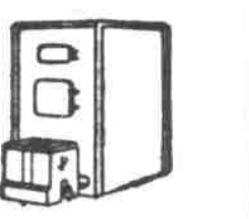

The series, called "Stories to Remember" is devoted to problems of inter-group tensions in the United States as viewed by outstanding American writers. The series has been brought here in the interest of Brotherhood Month, which is February.
 The programs have been designed to interest all persons and groups concerned with inter-group relations.

A freshman in pharmacy, Margaret Miller of Salem, has been elected censor of Pi Beta Phi, national social sorority at Oregon State College. Miss Miller is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. V. W. Miller, 1825 Fairmont Ave.
