

Around Town....

By JERYME ENGLISH
TAKING THE ROMANTIC... spotlight today is attractive Jo-Anne Gilmore, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon D. Gilmore, whose betrothal to John D. Lattin, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Lattin, of Chicago, is being announced by the bride-elect's parents. The news was first told on the University of California campus on Valentine's Day, where both are taking graduate work, and Tuesday night the bride-elect's Phi Beta Kappa sorority sisters at the University of Oregon learned of the duo's engagement when the traditional box of chocolates was passed. No date has been set for the wedding. Jo-Anne graduated from the University of Oregon last June. She is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Salem Spinners.

The bride-elect is now studying for her master's degree in English at the University of California. Her fiancé received his master's degree from Iowa State College and is now studying for his doctorate at the University of California.

THE SOCIAL WHIRL... Mrs. Melvin H. Geist has invited a group of her friends to a one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge on Friday at her Fairmount Hill home. Covers will be placed for twelve and bouquets of spring flowers will be used in the decor.

Entertaining... at a supper party on Sunday night will be Dr. and Mrs. Harold O. Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wing, who have invited twenty guests to the former's Morningside residence.

Hostess... for two affairs this week will be Mrs. Carl Porter of Albany, formerly of Salem. She has invited a group of her Salem friends to a fashion luncheon and bridge party on Thursday afternoon at the Aero Club in Portland. A similar affair will be held at the club on Friday for a group of Mrs. Porter's Albany friends.

A bridal shower... The Kingwood Heights home of Miss Nellie Schwab on Grandview Place will be the setting for a party on Friday night in honor of Mrs. William F. Collins (Lucille Jaskoski), who was married on Feb. 9 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Forty friends of the bride have been invited to the dessert supper and miscellaneous shower. Assisting hostesses with Miss Schwab will be Mrs. Ralph Shantz, Mrs. Fred Kruse, Miss Bessie Smith, Mrs. Mabel S. Powers, Mrs. Jennie Erwin and Mrs. Helen Busch.

To Oregon City... on Friday to be guests at a tea for which Mrs. John Ross will be hostess at her home will be Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Charles Campbell and Mrs. Robert DeArmond.

Club notes... Mrs. Willard Marshall will preside at a bridge luncheon this afternoon at her Fairmount Hill home for members of her club. Mrs. William C. Dyer Jr. will entertain her club at bridge and a late supper on Thursday night. Mrs. Terry Randall will be a guest.

In Bend... for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Perry and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Foreman and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger. The men participating in the state bowling tournament.

House guests... at the Fairmount Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zosel and Mr. and Mrs. G. Jesse Burns and daughter, Jessica, of Orinda, Calif. Mrs. Dorothy Jones and Miss Beverley Mae Jones of Seattle.

They are here for the wedding of Miss Patricia Zosel and Elwood Oertel on Saturday night at the First Congregational Church. Miss Jones will be the honor attendant and Jessica will be the flower girl for the nuptials. The Zosels will be hosts for a buffet supper for thirty guests in the recreation room of their home following the wedding rehearsal on Friday night in compliment to their daughter and her fiancé. Assisting Mrs. Zosel will be Mrs. Earl Burch and Mrs. Frank Needham.

Named a delegate... Mrs. William Van Meter of Salem, an active member of the Salem League of Women Voters and chairman of voters' service and of the state committee on civil liberties, has been chosen one of the three delegates to represent the Oregon League at the League of Women Voters of the United States at the annual convention to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio in late April.

The delegates were elected at a state board meeting held in Portland last week at which all of Oregon's nine local leagues were represented. Others to attend the convention will be Mrs. Albert V. Logan, Corvallis, state president, and Mrs. Frank B. Queen, Portland, state chairman of social welfare.

Mr. Angel—Mrs. Rose Appleby entertained at her home Wednesday night with three tables of bridge followed by a late supper. Extra guests were Mrs. Albert Bochsler and Mrs. J. A. Kaiser.
