New Secretary Hired by State Prison Warden

Employment of Claire Schur, 27, as secretary to Penitentiary Warden Virgil O'Malley, was announced Thursday.

She succeeds Mrs. J. C. Close, who has resigned effective Friday, following her marriage to her convict husband.

The new secretary also is from California where she was employed in the prison system for several years. Mrs. Close also was connected with the California prison system when she came to Salem last November.

Mrs. Close reiterated Thursday she has made no plans for the future but probably will remain in Oregon.

Both Mrs. Close and the new secretary were on duty at the prison Thursday.
