TURN-ABOUT ROOM

Have you ever stopped to consider what an important part music plays in gracious living? How empty your house would seem without it? Virtually every home has a radio, or a radio-phonograph, and soon many will now probably be adding television sets. This usually means that the living room must be "set to music" ... the furniture arranged to insure the ultimate listening and/or looking comfort; and at the same time making it possible to enjoy whatever other pleasurable assets the room affords.

In the room sketched, the furniture has been arranged to permit complete enjoyment of the window garden AND the combination piece on the opposite wall. The only shifting necessary to give every seating unit an unobstructed view in either direction is the turn about of the three light-weight upholstered chairs.

Pale yellow draperies stand out importantly against dark green window wall. Other walls of soft avocado green play up lustrous beauty of mahogany pieces. Tufted love seat in green—a shade lighter than the broadloom carpet—and red-violet upholstered chairs act as foils for each other, give the room color balance. Note the graceful blending of the Modern and Traditional pieces.

We have anticipated your furniture needs, and have carefully chosen every piece with them in mind. Do come in and get acquainted with our wide selections. Lovely, livable pieces for every room in your home.
