Suicide Curve Up In Italy

ROME (AP)—In this land of song, light wines and spaghetti—but also of traditional misery—the suicide curve is up, but not so high as it was 50 years ago.

In 1950, a total of 2,644 persons ended their lives in Italy. The total for last year is not yet complete, but is sure to be higher. The reason usually is economic.

Suicide reports hit Italian readers with hard impact because during the 20 years of Fascism the Italian press could report them only as deaths.

Doctors' Warning Regarded Lightly

SAN GABRIEL, Calif. (AP)—Doctors told Lloyd (Swede) Larson, 54, to take life easier about three years ago, but he's not sure they would appreciate the way he's doing it.

Swede and Hugh Hutchins, 59, are leaving on a motorcycle tour of the untraversed country between Guatemala, Mex., and Panama.

Last year, he and Hutchins saw Mexico from the seats of their English motorcycles. They enjoyed it so much they decided to take the longer journey to Panama.

Slow Formation Puzzles Radar In Korean Zone

SEOUL (AP)—The radar screens picked up the unidentified formation barreling in from the sea toward Seoul.

The time was 2:30 a.m. Tuesday. Maybe the Communists at last were unleashing their Air Force for offensive action.

But there was something queer about this. The formation was moving at only about 85 miles an hour, which is a crawl in this air age.

The spots on the radar screen were not accompanied by the usual din of aircraft engines.

Just the same, Seoul's air raid sirens began to wail, crews loaded their big anti-aircraft guns and soldiers manned the giant searchlights. Might be a new secret weapon.

The searchlights nervously fingered across the night sky and at last picked up the enemy—a large flock of snow geese flying in formation.
