

City News Briefs

LOG FIRM INCORPORATED
Articles of incorporation of Log Structures, Inc., an Aumsville logging and timber products firm, were filed Friday with Marion County clerk. Incorporators were George Turner, C. W. Wright and H. C. Jensen, all of Aumsville. Capital stock totals $12,000 in 120 shares.

40 acres, $8000, terms, clear, creek, no buildings. 425 Hoyt.

Moore's Aquarium, clearance for new stock and equipment 20% discount. March 19th thru 26th. 2 miles from S. Lancaster on Macleay Rd.

BOUNDARY CHANGED
Transfer of 27 acres from Central Howell to Salem School District was approved Friday by Marion County district boundary board, with no opposition appearing. The change was asked by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Aulstun.

For sale: Piano—Wurlitzer pinet—in excellent condition, like new, reasonable price. Phone 2-4151.

VISITS FROM NEW YORK
C. N. Hagar Jr., Plattsburg, N. Y., paper manufacturing executive, was a guest Thursday of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Weeks, 3375 Rawlins Ave. He is on an inspection trip of paper mills along the Pacific Coast.

Johns-Manville shingles applied by Mathis Bros., 164 S. Com'l. Free estimates. Ph. 3-4642.

Air-Shipments tickets anywhere. Kugel, 3-7694, 153 N. High St.

AT CAMPING CONCLAVE
Frank (Scotty) Washburn, associate boys' work director at Salem YMCA, is at Victoria, B.C., for a Pacific Northwest meeting of the American Camping Association. Washburn, one of the leaders in a discussion of camp promotion, left Wednesday evening and will return here Saturday.

Todd's septic tank service, cleaning, installation, repairs. Phone 3-9782.

SEED STORE LISTED
Vista Feed and Seed, 3105 S. Commercial St., is the assumed business name filed Friday with Marion County clerk by Wilmer E. and Vera E. Gilman.

Hollywood Aquarium. Large selection tropical fish, plants, equipment. 1958 McCoy.

RETIREES FROM CAFE
Notice of retirement from the assumed business name of American Shanghai Cafe in Salem was filed Friday with Marion County clerk by Lee Pang.

Lillie Madsen At California Flower Show

Lillie M. Madsen (Mrs. Harold A. Larsen), Statesman farm and garden editor, is spending the week end in Los Angeles attending the California International Flower Show which opens at Hollywood Park today. The show continues through March 29.

She will return to her work here Monday night after making the trip via United Air Lines, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Victor Madsen of Hillsboro, and Miss Althea Meyer, city treasurer at Silverton. She will be a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, the P. H. Bliss (Miss Colleen Madsen) at Van Nuys.

Births

IVERSON—To Mr. and Mrs. William Iverson, 1285 S. 16th St., a daughter, Thursday, March 20 at Salem General Hospital.

SLATTUM—To Mr. and Mrs. Odin Slattum, 4185 Hayesville Dr., a daughter, Friday, March 21, at Salem General Hospital.

MENNIN—To Mr. and Mrs. Darr Mennin, 1485 Wallace Rd., a son, Friday, March 21, at Salem General Hospital.

WESTON—To Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weston, Salem route 1, box 291A, a son, Friday, March 21, at Salem General Hospital.

DAVIS—To Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, Dallas route 1, a daughter, Friday, March 21, at Salem Memorial Hospital.

It is believed that the Wars of the Roses in England started the deep dislike of the professional soldier which was a feature of English life for hundreds of years. The first Rotary Club was formed in Chicago in 1905.

SAVE Where Savings Pays

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

2 1/2 % Current Rate
129 N. Commercial - Salem

MISS HONOR ROLL
Miss Joyce Evelyn Kirby, a graduate of Salem High School in 1949, was listed on the first semester honor roll at Whittier College, Whittier, Calif. Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis C. Kirby of Santa Ana, Calif., formerly of Salem, she is majoring in religion.

Landscaping and designing. No. job too large or too small. F. A. Doerfler and Sons Nursery, 250 Lancaster Dr. at 4 Corners. Phone 2-2549.

Rat Poisons Kill 17 Dogs Near Donald

Rat poison killed 17 dogs in Donald, it was confirmed Friday by Marion County Health Department officials in a report to the health executive committee.

The department was thanked for its investigation by letter by Harold E. Milliken of the State Board of Health. No recommendations were made, although local health officials said the poison was necessary to combat rats in private grain elevators and storehouses in Donald.

In other business at its monthly session, the health committee instructed Dr. W. J. Stone, county health officer, to inform the state board that the committee felt more of the federal health funds should be channeled from state to local health services.

A spot check of Marion County and Salem restaurants is being made this week by state officers, it was reported, in connection with an annual survey. Regular restaurant inspection is done by local health officials.

Resignation of nurse Luella Ender was accepted.

Indian Youth Education Work Praised

Oregon's State Department of Education was praised Thursday by a federal Bureau of Indian Affairs official for aiding the program of bringing more Indian youths into regular public schools.

R. W. Danielson, assistant chief of the bureau at Washington, D. C., also had words of commendation for the operation of Chemawa Indian School, where he is visiting during a tour of federal Indian institutions in western states.

Danielson joined a group of officials and students from Chemawa who met Thursday noon with Salem Lions Club at the Marion Hotel.

Several colorful tribal dances were presented by costumed students. Dances of Northwest tribes and of the Navajos of the Southwest were performed, including the hoop, thunderbird, swan and war dances.

Youths Face Theft Charge

Larceny of several large pieces of scrap iron was charged Friday to two 19-year-old Salem residents, who took until Wednesday to plead in Marion County District Court.

William Victor Beard, 2125 N. Liberty St., and William Frazier Providence, 341 State St., were arrested by state police on charges of petit larceny. The alleged theft was from Keizer Sand and Gravel Co.

The two youths were held in the county jail in lieu of $500 bail each.

Young Burglary Suspect Released By Juvenile Court

Release to Portland authorities of the youngest of two youths charged with burglary of a Salem bakery last Monday was granted Friday.

The 17-year-old boy has been held here in custody of Marion County Juvenile Court. Since he is alleged to have committed several burglaries in Portland and is a ward of Multnomah County Juvenile Court, the transfer was approved by Circuit Judge Joseph B. Felton.

His companion, Jack Ray Trute, 18, has been bound over for grand jury action here and is in Marion County jail.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends for their kindness, words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings in the loss of our wife and mother.

James King
Austin King and family
Ruby Cooke and family

I Hide My Deafness... yet HEAR Distinctly!
NO SUITON Shows in Ear Discover how you, too, may hear again yet hide your deafness. Write, phone or come in

Beltone
MONO-PAC
One-Unit Hearing Aid
Beltone Hearing Center
James N. Taft & Associates
228 Oregon Bldg.
Cor. State & High Phone 2-4491

Archdiocesan Convention To Open Today

More than 250 Catholic women will be in Salem today to open the two-day convention of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women.

Discussions will follow the convention theme, "The Lay Apostolate Today," which will deal with the program of interesting Catholic lay person in more church activities. President Mrs. Merton Miller, Oswego, will preside.

Several officers, including Mrs. Gordon Bruce, Portland, convention chairman, arrived in Salem Friday night to complete arrangements for the sessions which will open this morning with mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock.

Registration of delegates will start at 10 o'clock at St. Joseph's Hall and the first business meeting will open there at 10:30 o'clock. This will include a welcome talk by the Rev. Joseph E. Vanderbeck, pastor of St. Joseph's, and secretaries reports. This will be followed by committee chairmen reports.

Following lunch at the Senator Hotel a symposium on the convention theme will be held at 2:15 o'clock, followed by an address at 3:15 o'clock by the Rt. Rev. Abbott Damian Jeniges, OSB, of Mt. Angel. The Rev. Patrick A. Doolley, Portland deanery, spiritual moderator, will talk at 3:35 p.m., followed by a report of nominating committee.

A get-acquainted hour will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Senator Hotel's Capitol Room. Discussions will continue Sunday, with adoption of resolutions and election of new officers. The convention will end with a 7 p.m. banquet Sunday at the Senator.

Flax Textiles Plant Adds Space Twice

The Oregon Flax Textiles Division in Salem has been enlarged twice in the last year to fit needs of the parent plant, National Automotive Fibres, Inc., according to the Detroit, Mich., firm's annual report.

The company reports that it is "impossible to predict our automotive volume" but "an increase in our non-automotive volume is expected sometime during 1952."

At the last enlargement of the Salem plant the output of braided and woven flax rugs was doubled. In this same expansion plan a new plant was built in Orange, Calif., which contains a 43,000 square feet of floor space.

Sales for the NAFFI in 1951 are reportedly the highest in history. Profits were trimmed to $3.21 per share, however, because of "ceiling" prices, the government's cut-back of cars, manufactured and higher taxes," the report states.

State Cannery Products Net High Returns

Oregon cannery products distributed throughout the country gross about $45 million to growers and fishermen of the state, Miss Wilma Sledge of the American Can Co. told members of the Associated Women of the Oregon Farm Bureau Federation here Thursday.

By preserving perishable harvests for year-around consumption in out-of-state markets, Miss Sledge said, canning and freezing have built a $120 million industry which is one of the foundations of the state's prosperity.

More than 17,000 persons were employed during last year's canning season, she added, and more than 150 square miles of land were planted to fruits and vegetables for canning and freezing purposes.

Mrs. Walter Hardy of Molalla, president of the group, presided at the Marion Hotel meeting.

Virginia Mayo's Body Threatened With Seizure

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The well-proportioned body of Virginia Mayo was threatened with seizure here as Superior Court expressed displeasure at the actress' failure to show up for an alimony hearing.

In a bench warrant, the court ordered some lucky sheriff's deputy "to attach the body of Virginia Mayo and have her before our said court . . . to show cause why she should not be punished for contempt."

The warrant, however, will not be served unless Miss Mayo fails to appear again next Saturday.

She has been asked to give a deposition in the $27,180 alimony suit brought against her husband, Michael O'Shea, by his first wife, Grace. The warrant was obtained by her attorneys for use, if necessary.

DAV Sends Magazines to Troops in Korea

Salem Chapter 6 of the Disabled American Veterans sent stacks of magazines and newspapers in these boxes recently to fighting men in Korea. Pictured above from left to right, Vicar Wagers, committee chairman; Jack A. Temple, Salem manager of West Coast Fast Freight; Frank Hunt; Glenn Harbaugh, commander, American Legion Post 136; A. L. Brewster, commander, Salem Chapter 6, DAV; William A. Shinn and James Callaway. The two posts have been sending reading materials abroad as a regular project.

Freshman Glee 'Serenade' Set Tonight at Willamette's Gym

Willamette University tonight will present its 44th Annual Freshman Glee with the theme "Serenade." The musical event will start at 8 p.m. in the campus gymnasium.

The Glee theme will be carried out by each class presenting an original song and words. The 44th Glee is dedicated to Prof. Herman Clark, retiring professor of physical science and longtime announcer of Glee winners.

The senior class will present its song, "Moonbeams" with words and music by Weldon Ward, Salem. "Serenade's Dream" is the junior class song with words by Jane Froehner, San Leandro, Calif., and Margaret Conklin, Bend, and music by Harriett Aller, Yakima, Wash.

The sophomore class will present "Serenade in Silver," words by Marjorie Leonard, Silverton, and music by Edna Hill, Salem.

Freshmen, sponsors of the event, present their "Moon Melodies." Words are by Laurel Jewett, Central Point, and Barbara Young, Alberta, Canada, and music by Keith Mirick, Medford.

KOCO will broadcast Glee tonight beginning immediately after the State Basketball Tournament, and Sunday will present a condensation of Glee at 3:15 p.m. A nationwide hookup through LBS is to present Glee at 5 p.m. Tuesday. KSLM will broadcast the four songs at 10 p.m. tonight and then conclude with a repeat of the winning song.

Words and music each rate 20 per cent and presentation 60 per cent in judging this event.

Salem Youths Honored at FFA Session

CORVALLIS (AP)—Outstanding service and leadership brought State Farmers awards to 69 Oregon youths Wednesday at the state convention of the Future Farmers of America.

Among those named were Jim Kirkland and Wayne Simmons, Salem.

The FFA voted honorary membership to Gov. Douglas McKay; Elmer McClure, State Grange master; Joe Southworth, Portland; Glen Orling, Albany; Ira Forrey, Milwaukie; and Al Ringo, Gervais.

Five Salem Men Serve On Board USS Essex

Aboard the aircraft carrier USS Essex, recently reported in Pearl Harbor, are five Willamette Valley men.

Ship's company personnel are Lt. Roy E. Neufeldt, Salem Route 6; Chris F. Larsen, airman apprentice, and Charles L. Gard, fireman, 1310 Madison St., both of Salem; Clarence D. Conner, seaman, 471 Park St., and Ivan W. Sanderson, seaman, both of Lebanon.

Sheep Breeders Set Field Tour April 9

A sheep breeders ram field day, sponsored by the Marion County Livestock Association has been announced for April 9 by Ben A. Newell, Marion County agent.

Visits will be made to the D. P. McCarthy and Son farm on South River Road near Independence to see Hampshires at 10 a.m. At 1:30 p.m. the group will go to the farm of A. I. Eoff, Salem Route 6 to see both Hampshires and Suffolks.

Keystone Cops, Spring Music Backdrop for Festival Drawing

A cordon of Keystone Cops and spring music provided the background for the second prize drawings of the Marion County courthouse steps in the Salem Downtown Merchant's Association spring festival Friday afternoon before more than a thousand onlookers.

The drawing of tickets for Friday's seven prizes climaxed the second day in the association's five-day spring festival. The peak will be reached next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Winner of Friday's main prize, a Reo Royale Deluxe power lawn mower was C. J. Schulte of 1421 Park Ave. Other gifts and winners were: Eskimo four-quart electric ice cream freezer, Howard Baker of Dayton; Sampson all-metal card table, Mrs. Merle W. Wilgers of 553 N. 22nd St.; Dulane Fryrite deep fat fryer, H. B. Koehler of 818 N. Liberty St.; Gates plastic-cord garden hose, John Kihls of Jefferson; a Cascade ham, Ramona Triplet of Salem Route 8, Box 618; a large basket of groceries, G. Williams of Foster.

None of the winners were present, but they will be shown their prizes at the city's two banks this morning.

The cordon of Keystone Cops, decked in uniforms were: J. L. Franzen, city manager; Dave Hoss of KSLM; Robert Binford, Payless Drug Store; Robert Fisher, manager Lee Apartments; Newell Williams and Cecil Farnes, both of Heider's.

During Friday's sales, free morning bus service was provided, with free parking for shopper in the afternoon at four downtown parking lots.

Next week's events will be started at 11 a.m. when members of the association sweep the streets

Public Records

PROBATE COURT
Nels Martinus Hansen estate: Appraised at $13,001.17.

Arthur McClanahan guardianship: Allowance to ward's wife increased $25 monthly.

Jack Phillips guardianship: Mae Phillips appointed guardian, authorized to accept compromise offer of $535.33 from Elmer Berg and Dwight A. State in settlement of alleged claim for injuries sustained when ward struck by truck Aug. 10, 1951, in Salem.

Jacob Vogt estate: Appraised at $1,139.44.

MARRIAGE LICENSE APPLICATIONS
Vern Kliever, 24, body and fender worker, 1985 Birchwood Dr., and Norma Stolte, 19, press tender, 645 Ferry St., both of Salem.

Thomas Vance Franklin, 21, Navy, North Carolina, and Constance Joan Benton, 21, newspaper employe, 890 N. Commercial St., Salem.

DISTRICT COURT
William Victor Beard, 2125 N. Liberty St., and William Frazier Providence, 341 State St., charged with petit larceny, continued to March 26 for plea, held in lieu of $500 bail each.

Fred Alton Lowry, Brooks, charged with driving while intoxicated, four months in jail by William Vaughn Jr., 4810 Reimann Rd., charged with harboring unlicensed dog, changed plea to guilty, fined $10.

CIRCUIT COURT
Cecil W. Stuller vs C. W. Wasson: Case dismissed with prejudice, upon stipulation as settled.

Jean L. Stovall vs John M. Stovall: Divorce decree to plaintiff grants her ownership of household appliances and auto, custody of minor child and $50 monthly support.

Darlene M. King vs Clarence Alvin King: Complaint for divorce alleging cruel and inhuman treatment seeks custody of minor child and $50 monthly support. Married Feb. 18, 1951, at Salem.

Ellen Anderson vs John S. Anderson: Complaint for divorce alleging cruel and inhuman treatment asks that defendant be required to pay $350 indebtedness. Married April 25, 1951, at Salem.

Donna Flowers vs Wayne Flowers: Complaint for divorce alleging cruel and inhuman treatment seeks custody of two minor children, $80 monthly support, ownership of auto and household furnishings. Married Oct. 8, 1948, at Vancouver, Wash. Hearing set April 7 on plaintiff's motion for temporary custody of children and temporary support money of $80 monthly.

Montgomery Ward and Co. vs George E. Barza and others: Dependant United States of America petitions for removal of case to U. S. District Court of Oregon.

Charles W. Creighton Jr. vs G. H. Grabenhorst Sr. and others, doing business as Grabenhorst Bros.: Complaint seeks judgment for $2,000 allegedly received by defendants for benefit to Jeanne W. and Joseph H. Hopkins, on claim assigned to plaintiff.

Andrew Solberg vs Mary Solberg: Divorce decree to plaintiff grants him ownership of half interest in specified real property and orders him to convey deed to other real property to defendant.

Thornton McDonald vs Charles H. Heltzel: Public Utilities Commissioner's order 28970 suspended pending disposition of suit; defendant enjoined from enforcing Oregon Motor Transportation Code against plaintiff.

MUNICIPAL COURT
William George Hastings, 1215 S. 19th St., pleaded innocent to charge of reckless driving, trial set April 11, released on $35 bail.

Marvin Lynn Miller, Dallas, illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, fined $25.

Darwin Emmett Leahy, Dallas, illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, fined $25.

It's fun to keep fit

Let Sun Valley add variety to "Bread Hungry Diet"—and safety, too. Sun Valley Bread baked with no shortening whatever, is low in calories, (less than 50 to the slice) yet high in energy producing proteins. Try SUN VALLEY BREAD toasted tomorrow morning.

Eat and enjoy Sun Valley Bread

BAKED WITHOUT SHORTENING OR ADDED FATS

LOW IN CALORIES HIGH IN ENERGY

AT YOUR FAVORITE FOOD STORE

Made by the Bakers of Master Bread

Across the Street Across the Nation

Since 1906

● MOVING

● STORAGE

● CRATING

● PACKING

● SHIPPING

● HEATING OIL

● COAL

● BRIQUETS

CALL

RUSS PRATT

CAPITAL CITY TRANSFER CO.

PHONE 2-2436

HERE'S HOW . . . After parking your car at one of the above commercial parking centers, present your claim check to our receptionist for validation. Upon returning to pick up your car, give the validated check to the parking attendant . . . it's easy, convenient, and you park FREE when visiting Morris Optical Co.

MORRIS OPTICAL CO.
444 STATE STREET

MORRIS OPTICAL CO.
A Complete Optical Service
444 State Street Phone 3-5528

FREE PARKING FOR OUR PATRONS!

