Street-Widening Bonds Top Six City Tax Proposals

Weather

Portland San Francisco

FORECAST (from U. S. Weather Bureau, McNary field, Salem): Partly cloudy today, tonight and Wednesday. High today 52 to 54, low tonight 29 to 51. Temperature in Salem at 12:01 a.m. was 33 degrees.

102nd YEAR

The Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, April 1, 1952

McGrath Turns 'Thumbs Down' Expected On Graft Prober To Run

WASHINGTON (AP) - Attorney General McGrath abruptly jerked the rug from under Newbold Morris Monday, declaring he would not day he expects Vice President appoint the administration's corruption sleuth as his special assistant Barkley to bid for the Democratic if he had to do it over again.

The attorney general's statement created a situation in which- President Truman has stepped if it comes to a head-President Truman may have to choose between aside. Morris and McGrath, with one of But the 74-year-old Barkley them leaving the government.

McGrath's change of heart re-

"I would not," the attorney gen-

"Let's wait and see what hap-

Down 6 MIGs

tles high over North Korea.

SEOUL (AP)-American Sabre jets

Tuesday destroyed six Russian-made MIG-15 jets and damaged

two in a series of swirling air bat-

The sleek Sabres blasted five of

Maj. William H. Westcott, Terre

Haute, Ind., and Capt. Iven C.

bagged two of the Communist eral said flatly.

nancial questionnaire Morris has the questionnaire and return it.

Last week in Tokyo General

Ridgway gave an interview of ernment. importance, which unfortunately McGra time when the truce talks "drag disclosed when Rept. Keating (Ron" with no end in sight, and N. Y.) asked him whether he when the Korean War is being would appoint Morris a special thrust into the cauldron of do- assistant now, in the light of demestic politics Ridgway gave some | velopments. sage advice which it is well for our people at home to heed.

Ridgway is a military man, Later, asked if he would appeal through and through; and a very to the President in the event of competent one as he demonstrated a Justice Department snub of his quickly when he took command of questionnaire, he said: the ground forces after the disastrous repulse of the MacArthur pens. drive to the Yalu and the death of Lt. Gen. Walker. Without doubt as a military man he would prefer to fight the enemy to their knees fully" with Morris and give him but Harold E. Stassen has offered and make them sue for peace. Unlike his predecessor in the supreme command he realizes the risk of an all-out commitment on the continent of Asia. His interview shows his sound judgment of the comment at least until he had shape to read the continent of the comment at least until he had shape to read the continent of the comment at least until he had shape to read the continent of the comment at least until he had shape to read the continent of the comment at least until he had shape to read the continent of the continen on the pressing question of war a chance to read the attorney genand peace in Korea.

He admitted what all of As recognize that "you find your pa-tience sorely tried when dealing tience sorely tried when dealing in any way with the Communist negotiators." He added this: "But patience is a necessity. The stakes in this case are not only (Continued on editorial page, 4)

March Rain Below Normal

March, the windy month, ended last night with nothing much to show for its exit but a chilly 33

Salem weather bureau reported that the wind for the month was prevailing southerly which, oldtimers will swear, means rain.

However, rain was 1.29 inches below normal with a paitry 2.59 became a jet ace. He previously inches total. The greatest reported total rainfall for any 24 hours was .67 inches on the 23rd and 24th. It might be remembered that last Wife Has Last year a week-long snow storm, which started March 4, dumped Word for 17 Years 10.9 inches of white blanketing on Average monthly temperature month with a balmy 67 degrees but residents shivered on March man granted her a divorce after nomination. 22nd with a low of 26 degrees.

Cloudy days were in corres for the month with a reported 25 word to her since, although they Since Start of Weather Year Sept. the month with a reported 25 didn't separate until November, This Year 1950. partly cloudy.

Brush Clearance at

Cemetery Underway Brush clearance at the Odd Fellows Cemetery on South Commercial Street is underway.

City crews have started to clean up the undergrowth while discussions continue between city and county officials and the cemetery association on a plan for cleaning up and maintaining the historic

Animal Crackers By WARREN COODRICH

'Eqad! We're trapped!'

Barkley

Sen. George (D-Ga.) said Monpresidential nomination now that normally the most articulate of This possibility arose when Mc- politicians, would say only that Grath told a House investigating "I have no statement to make" and committee that he was not sure "I don't care to talk about the conwhether he would fill out the fi- vention.'

George said "it will be a week prepared for him and 595 other or more before the air clears and officials in the Justice Depart- we know who all the candidates

Morris has said he expects the Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said Tru-President to fire any government | man's withdrawal from the Demoofficial who refused to complete cratic contest "enhances the opportunity for Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) to obtain the Democratic nomina-The long, probing document is the first s'ep in Morris' search for Byrd, long a critic of the Truwrong-doing in the federal govman administration, said that with a 1952 party platform acceptable has not received the attention it garding Morris—a man he himself to the South, Russell would be "a deserved in this country. At a picked for the cleanup job-was very appealing candidate to all sections of the country, and a great

With nothing very conclusive in sight in Washington, the politicos studied Tuesday's primaries in Wisconsin and Nebraska, particularly the situation of Sen. Robert A. Taft of (in the Wisconsin Republican voting.

Taft is staking much of his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination on what happens in Wisconsin; he has said he will win 20 of the 30 delegate contests Last Feb. 14 Mr. Truman said there. His opponents do not include he was directing "all departments Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who and agencies . . . to cooperate trounced him in New Hampshire "any information he may require." to share with the general one-half > of delegates running under the Eisenhower as its second choice. A fourth slate is supporting Gen. Douglas MacArthur who says he is not a candidate.

> In the Democratic primary in Wisconsin, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee was regarded as in a happy position. Kefauver's slate of delegates is opposed by two rival groups in the state's Demo-cratic politics. Both had been pledged to Truman.

One-representing the group in control of the party machinerywill now run uninstructed. The other is still pledged, on the theory that Truman might be a candidate the MIGs out of the sky in one after all.

Kerr vs. Kefauver In Nebraska, the Truman with-drawal served to put into clearer Kincheloe, Cassopolis, Mich., each focus the rivalry between Kefauver and Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Col. Francis Gabreski, Oil City, to step out of the Democratic Pa., shot down the fifth MIG and presidential race if Truman ran, is now on his own.

Stassen is the only big name entry in Nebraska's republican primary, but intense write-in-thevote campaigns on behalf of Taft and Eisenhower have heightened the interest.

Back in Washington, there was some agitation for House Speaker SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)-Mrs. Mary Rayburn as well as Vice President was 44 degrees which is a reported Chew, 48, of Palo Alto, testified Barkley. Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) 2.5 degrees below normal. March Monday the last words her hus- urged Texas Democrats to line up 27th had the warmest day of the band spoke to her were "all right." behind Texan Rayburn as "the But Superior Judge Byrl S. Sals- best qualified man" for the party she explained that he spoke them

17 years ago and hadn't said a SALEM PRECIPITATION

Politics on Parade

Who's Running for What in the May Primaries!

(Editor's note: Stories in the "Political Parade" are written by or for the candidates, on invitation of The Oregon Statesman, and views expressed herein may or may not be in accordance with the opinion of this newspaper. The articles are published in the public interest, and without obligation on the part of

> Today's subject F. C. GREEN Candidate for

SCHOOL SUPT. (POLK) F. C. Green of Dallas is seeking intendent of schools. He is at present an instructor of mathematics at Dallas High School, a position he has held for the past eight years. Besides regular school work, Mr. Green is active in the educational field. He has been a representative of the and judge the Holy report which He acted as a representative teach- superintendent of schools in Polk the Polk County school boards and the Polk County Teachers Association. At present he is leader of the mathematics section of the Regional Section Work Conference for high school teachers.

Polk County Teachers Association.

Rapid educational changes are taking place within Polk County. sign was in motion. In order to keep informed as to the thinking of school officials he has recently studied and completed courses in public school finance, the position as Polk County super- vocational guidance, testing and measurements, resources of Oregon, school organization, curriculum workshop, occupational and educational information, and supervision of schools.

Mr. Green feels that mature judgment is needed in meeting these changes, judgment that will be fair to the school child, school patron, school district and the teacher. Mr. Green thinks the citizens of Polk County should study pertains to consolidation of schools, in an unbiased way. He hopes to come so close," Capt. Weaver render good service in the educa- stated. "There is no doubt in my tional field by becoming the next mind that if that train hadn't er in the round table discussion County. group before a joint meeting of (Temerrew: Marcel Chrisman)

He's pretty mad at baloons, is 412-year-old Benny Brophy. He chased one into a culvert Monday and got stuck. Salem First Aid Capt. E. C. Hart (above) helped pull him out. Below, Benny points to the spot where he got all tied up with himself. Deputy Sheriff Harvey Frankum, Captain Hart and First Aidman Robert Blegen are glad he's out, too.

Quick-Thinking Salem Police Avert Train-Truck Tragedy

By JAMES B. MILLER Staff Writer, The Statesman Six minutes of split-second thinking Monday evening by two

Salem police officers kept tragedy from striking at the scene of an accident at 12th and Court Streets. An accident at 8:57 p.m. involving a Northwest Grocery GMC truck and trailer driven by Page Allen Whilcher, of Portland, and a 1950 Ford sedan driven by Nicholas Dewey Sumech, of Blachly, Ore., was answered by two city police officers. The two vehicles had collided across the railroad tracks at this intersection. A third officer, Captain Leland

Weaver, was cruising near the scene of the accident and, hearing the accident report, chose to drive Demo Write-In north of the accident to be sure a train was not in the vicinity. As Drive for Ike he drove north on 14th Street he noted, two blocks down, the accident on Court and as he crossed Chemeketa Street, one block north, he saw the railroad stop Swinging immediately to 12th Street, he leaped from his car to flag the passenger train. The southbound train had two engines and 22-heavily loaded cars.

Seeing the train nearing the accident another police officer at the scene yelled at the crowd to dent. step back and then ran with a / "Obviously the old guard Reflashlight between the truck and publicans in control of the party finals of The Oregon Statesmanthe oncoming train. As the train passed him at 9:03 p.m., Weaver saw the fireman shout a warning to the engineer. With only one block between them and the vehicles, the engineer and fireman were able to stop the train . . . less than one inch from the truck.

by bystanders as well as the two one week-until April 8.

police officers on duty there and the passenger of the car who, unable to see the train's approach, was sitting in his vehicle.'

PORTLAND (AP)-A Democratic write-in vote for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower on the Oregon primary ballot was urged here Monday. W. W. Campbell, Portland, chairman of the Veterans Draft completed Monday for the cham- is expected to run closer to 1000. nominate Eisenhower for presi- ties.

machinery do not like Ike and if they can't get Taft, will probably go for MacArthur . . . Oregon Democrats for Eisenhower Have considerable hope that when the Republican convention turns Eisenhower down, the Democratic party will heed the cry of the be guests of the sponsors at a dinpeople and draft Eisenhower," he

STRIKE POSTPONED

PORTLAND (AP) - AFL metal been able to stop the truck would trades workers Monday night have been overturned onto some postponed their strike deadline for

Benny Finds Culvert Cold, Hard, Muddy

There's no sense going head first into a hole-you can't see a thing that way. And it's scary, color or national origin." too. So 412-year-old Benny Brophy did the perfectly obvious thing when his balloon bounced into a 12-inch culvert yesterday. He backed in so he could hook a foot around it.

Somehow or other, though, the foot got wedged in with a knee and Benny got wedged in with both and the first aid car came on the double. A long arm and a helping hand unwedged Benny and in 20 minutes or so he was dragged out-muddy, a little disgusted at balloons in general, and willing to admit that cement cul-Benny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brophy, 1920 S.

verts are cold, hard and scratchy. Cottage St. He got himself in the jam at the Charles A. Linday home, 2713 Hulsey Ave., where he and his mother had dropped in for a chat. The balloon also was

Combat Pay Boost Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate voted Monday to give everyone in the armed forces a 3 per cent pay boost and give men under fire in Korea an extra $45 a month. Now the measure goes back to the House.

There, a radically different pay passed in January. Unless the House accepts the

Nishioka To Get State Job

An American-born Japanese disabled war veteran, who recently was refused a job with the fered the job again Monday—and street lighting programs. Oregon Tax Commission, was ofhe accepted it.

Sagie Nishioka, 31, said Mon-day night in Seattle that he will accept the job of junior accountant with the commission. This is the same job which was denied him last month because of his Earlier Monday Gov. Douglas 2.) McKay referred to the previous action of the tax commission as "stupid and a damned outrage."

Records of the civil service com- stresses. mission Monday also showed that Levy for Parks Nishioka had been certified by civil service to the State Highway Commission as a tax auditor last tion, in addition to the present October, and had been "consid- one-mill park levy. Half the new ered." The record does not show levy, or about $16,000 annually at why he was not hired.

State Tax Commission had a two-hour meeting in the executive de-trict) of the city playground and partment Monday afternoon, recreation program. The balance Newspaper reporters were ex- would be for general park purcluded from the meeting which poses, including probably this year

Application Rejected

topped the State Civil Service imum of 2 mills, to raise money for panel of three for a position in the annual cost of street lighting the Tax Commission his applica- which is now at about $54,600. tion was rejected. State Labor Cost of this lighting is now met Commissioner W. E. Kimsey later from street funds, a budget praccharged that the commission had tice which has often been quesviolated the State Fair Employ- tioned by members of the budget ment Act in refusing Nishioka committee, especially when funds

A tax official said that Nishioka ments are sought. had previously topped a list as Budget Mum Subject tax auditor I. Later, said the of- What the new city budget will ficial, an opening appeared for the look like, overall, remains a mum junior accountant position. Nishio- subject among city officials, Workka applied for this job, and it was ing copies of the budget are now over the junior accountant posi- in the hands of aldermen, but no tion and not the tax auditor job committee meetings have yet been that the argument flared.

Against Policy A statement by Governor Mc-Kay, issued after Monday's meeting, emphasized "it has not been the policy of the State Tax Commission to discriminate against anyone because of race, religion,

"As a matter of fact," Governor McKay's statement read, "the Portland office of the Tax Commission employed a Chinese girl as receptionist for more than a year. She resigned of her own volition to accept a higher paying position with the federal gov-

The Governor said a Chinese student also has been temporarily employed by the Tax Commission the past two summers.

partments to set an example of conforming to the law."

Kimsey, as administrator of Oregon's 1949 fair employment practices law, said Tax Commissioner Ray Smith admitted to him that he didn't hire Nishioka because the public wouldn't approve of hiring a Japanese.

Passes Blame Smith tossed the blame to his personnel director, Jason Lee, asserting that he (Smith) didn't even know Nishioka had been turned down until the newspapers printed the story last week. Lee, who said he had recommended consistently that Nishioka be hired, said "I bitterly resent the statement that I refused to hire Nishioka." The public turned the heat on the governor and tax commission. Both got many letters protesting against the refusal to give a job to Nishioka, who was in a hosbill, calling for a 10 per cent pay pital 18 months recovering from plus fringe benefits, for CIO stee boost for all in uniform, was wounds received fighting in Eu- workers. rope in World War II.

The Purple Heart veteran said Senate version, which is unlikely, in Seattle he has "no bad feeling the differences will be ironed out of any kind" as a result of the by a Senate-House conference case. He said he preferred not to make any extended comment.

Public Invited to Grand Finals Of Spelling Contest Thursday COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—For years, April 1 has brought the same kind of telephone calls to the Columbus zoo. "Is Mr. Baer in his office?"

Final plans for a gala time were | Attendance at the contest itself Eisenhower Committee, said he pion spellers of the 7th and 8th The contest is open free to the feared the Republicans would not grades in Marion and Polk Coun- public.

The spellers - 21 girls and 6 boys-will compete in the grand KSLM Spelling Contest Thursday. Parrish Junior High will be host school, at 7:45 p.m. The 27 entrants - survivors in intensive competition between 85 schools-and their 27 teachers will ner at Parrish Junior High immediately preceding the finals.

The families and friends of the spellers may attend, too, on a nohost basis, and when dinner reservations closed last night it appeared attendance would approxiJudges at the finals will be Supreme Court Justice Harold thought of a solution. It's to Warner and Circuit Judges Rex tried Tuesday. Kimmell and Arlie Walker. Dave Hoss, KSLM, will be master of zoo will have its telephone disceremonies, and Wendell Webb, Oregon Statesman, word-caller.

The top three spellers in the Atomic Explosion grand finals will receive $100, $50 and $25 defense bonds, respect- Planned Tuesday finals held at Brush College, Dal- have scheduled a nuclear explo er, Leslie Junior High in Salem, Mt. Angel, Stayton and Turner.

KSLM will broadcast the finals without tactical significance, how between 8:30 and 8:55 p.m. and ever - leading up to a series of from 9:30 p.m. to conclusion.

Projects May Be On Ballot

By ROBERT E. GANGWARI City Editor, The Statesman Widening sections of South River Road, State, High, 12th and Ferry Streets is proposed in a $190,-500 bond issue bill now before the Salem City Council.

Six administration bills to ask the voters for separate financing of specific city improvements were introduced Monday night at a special Council session in City Hall. If finally adopted by the aldermen April 14 they will be submitted at the May 16 primary

The bond issue and special millage levy bills total $732,500 for work over the next two years on street widening, sewer, drainage and bridge improvents, park and

Street widenings proposed are 12th Street from Mission Street to south city limits, State from 13th to 15th, South River Road from Miller Street to city limits, Ferry from Cottage to Front Streets and High Street from Trade to Ferry and from Chemeketa to Marion Streets, (additional details on Page

The two special millages proposed are designed at least partly to relieve present city budget

One would be a one-mill coninuing levy for parks and recreapresent assessed valuation, would The State Board of Control and be earmarked for the city's halfwas called by Gov. Douglas Mc- a $10,000 Bush's pasture irrigation program. The other new millage proposed Although Nishioka previously is a continuing levy, up to a maxfor additional city street improve-

The other bond issues proposed by the administration and introduced formally into the Council

hopper Monday night: An $85,000 bond issue for bridges, including rebuilding of Mill creek street bridges at North 14th and Chemeketa Street, foot bridge at Olinger Field and a new Shelton Ditch foot bridge at South Capitol

A $100,000 bond issue for drainage improvements in the West, South and East Salem storm drain systems, plus drainage in connection with street paving work financed by property owners.

A $165,000 sewage bond issue including north trunk extensions to Center Street and Edina Lane: Portland Road trunk extension Stortz Avenue; West Salem later-"As Governor of Oregon," Mc-Kay said, "I expect all state de-of Church Street; separation of old er storm and sewer lines.

Wage Board Member Quits

SAN FRANCISCO (P)-Col. Alexander R. Heron, San Francisco industrialist, Monday announces his resignation from the govern ment's Wage Stabilization Board in a dispute growing out of the board's steel wage recommenda-

Heron, vice president of the Crown Zellerbach Corporation was one of the six industry board members. He was not on the panel of four industry men who dissented in the controversial decision to recommend 171/2 cents hourty

Heron said the steel case "is typical of government policy . . of using the WSB to arbitrate labor

Zoo to Cut Off Phone for Day

"May I speak to Mr. Fox, please?" "Mr. Lyon asked me to call him." The calls averaged 43 an hour, on April Fool's Day last year, 200 officials said. Finally, someone For one day only, the Columbus

The finalists comprise the top three spellers in each of nine semilas, Hubbard, Independence, Keiz- sion at the Nevada proving blasts later in April.