

It's Springtime

Mrs. Glenn E. Fravel has been out Easter shopping and wears one of the popular silk tulle coat dresses with pink gloves and a small black chapeau. (Kennell - Ellis photo).

Easter Dances

The Easter weekend will be marked with several club dances. The Trotters Club will hold its monthly formal dance Friday night in the Capital room of the Senator Hotel. Stubby Mills and his orchestra will play for dancing between 10 and 1 o'clock.

The Cama Club's formal dance is slated for Saturday night at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Glenn Woodry and his orchestra have been engaged to play for dancing. The Easter motif will be used in the decor and hours are from 10 to 1 o'clock.

The committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Slaughter and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bredahl.

The Wisteria Club dance, originally scheduled for April 11, has been postponed until Friday, May 9. The May dance will be a sports affair and the last one for the season.

The Tuxedo Club dinner dance has been postponed from April 11 to April 25 at the American Legion Club.

The Party Whirl . . .

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

Slated for Saturday afternoon, April 12 will be the tea for which Mrs. John Hutchens Johnson will be hostess at her Hansen Avenue residence. A large group of friends have been bidden to call between 2 and 5 o'clock.

Assisting about the rooms and greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. James R. Phillips, Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen, Mrs. William Duncan of Silverton and Mrs. William R. Shinn.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. Taylor Hawkins, Mrs. Donald A. Young, Mrs. Robert W. Prentiss, Mrs. Frank Martin and Mrs. Edwin P. Armstrong. Serving will be Mrs. Rollin W. Haag, Mrs. Donald Barnick, Mrs. Earl Bogardus, Mrs. Richard Gahlsdorf, Mrs. Robert K. Powell, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Mrs. Harold Schick, Mrs. Thomas A. Roberts Jr. and Mrs. Lester I. Pearmine Jr.

Au Revoir Tea

For Wednesday afternoon is the informal tea for which Mrs. Albert C. Gragg will be hostess at her North Capitol Street home for the pleasure of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Karschnia, who will be leaving later in the month for San Diego, where Ensign Karschnia will be stationed with the Navy. A group of the honor guest's intimate friends have been invited to call between 3 and 6 o'clock.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. John P. Maulding. Assisting will be Mrs. C. Lester Newman, Mrs. C. R. Nelson, Mrs. Leonard Olson and Mrs. Antoinette Kuzmanich.

To Fete Engaged Duo

Miss Patricia Brock and her fiance, Lester J. Brock, will be honor guests at a 11 o'clock breakfast on Easter Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Brazier C. Small and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Newbury Close, entertain at the former's Morningside residence on Bluff Avenue. The engaged duo will be married on May 23 and thirty of the young set have been bidden to the breakfast.

Two smartly dressed young matrons, Mrs. John M. Graham and Mrs. Merle Brown, caught by the photographer as they set out for an afternoon luncheon. Mrs. Graham wearing a black two-piece tulle suit with white hat and Mrs. Brown's suit of almond beige with benedictine trim. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Women's Section

Society + Clubs + Music

A frequent twosome, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling and Mrs. Chester A. Downs, leaving for an afternoon stroll, accompanied by the Ohling's boxer, Nicky. Mrs. Ohling has chosen a navy blue suit with matching straw highlighted with a red robe in back for her Easter outfit and Mrs. Downs is wearing a grey tailleur with navy blue straw and side. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

While out shopping Mrs. George A. Arbuckle stops to pick up a paper to read about the Easter fashions. Here she is wearing a lug-a-gie and white polka dot two-piece suit, which are so popular this season. Her straw in the brim tone is trimmed with dark brown ribbon. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

It's just the ticket for spring and Easter, the grey suit with pink and grey check jacket, which Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, above, is wearing this season. Her perky straw matches her ensemble. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

One always thinks of flowers at Easter and during the spring months. Mrs. Stephen Fouche, pictured at the left, stopped by the florist shop one day to admire the beautiful blooms. She has chosen a chocolate brown outfit accented with white. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).