On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q When it is impossible for a man's mother to pay the conventional visit upon her son's new fiancée what kind of a letter can she write?

A "Dear Ruth: Jim has just told us of his great happiness which, of course, brings joy to us. Our one regret is that we are so far away (or whatever it is that prevents the visit) that we cannot immediately welcome you in person. We do, however, send you our love and good wishes. Margaret Wilson."

Q Is it all right for a hostess to serve two or three dishes at a time, if she must do all the serving alone?

A Of course. Considerate guests would not criticize her for this, and of course she would not be serving if the dinner were formal.

Q Is it all right for a man to use only his initials when signing social correspondence?

A No; he should sign his full name.
