4,561 Watch Tribe Tag McNulty With Loss as WI Loop Bell Rings

FERRIS FIELD, Spokane—(Special)—The Spokane Indians got off to a flying start in Western International League play Tuesday night by spanking the Salem Senators 7 to 1 before a turnout of 4,561

The Spokes broke open the game in the fifth inning with three runs, scored three more in the sixth and another in the seventh. Salem could tally only once in the seventh.

The game was a duel between veterans Ray McNulty of Salem and John Conant of Spokane until the Indians went on the warpath. In the fifth a double by Eddie Murphy, a walk to Jimmy Brown, a safe bunt by Herb Souell, a single by Mel Wasley, another walk to Merlyn Burleson and Herb Simpson's single produced three runs,

Another double by Murphy, a walk to Brown, Souell's single, a fielder's choice and a walk netted the Tribe three more runs in the Broncs, A's, sixth. McNulty was driven out in the sixth and was replaced by Lefty Larry Mann. He gave up the final tally in the seventh on a walk to Murphy and singles by Brown and Souell. Luby Hits in Run

Conant finally yielded a run when Mann doubled, Glenn Tuckett singled and Manager Hugh Luby singled. This barrage drove Conant out and Bob Roberts, another Spokane veteran, took over the Western International League to successfully put out the fire. Salem could get only six hits, two by Luby. Spokane had 12, four baseman Herb Simpson. The same two teams play again Wednesday night here.

Salem had won 10 straight ping Tuesday night's opener. Conant was the winner. He won 16 last season for Spokane. Mc-Nulty won 14 last season for Sa-
