Four Corners—In the sanctuary before the altar of St. John's Lutheran Church the marriage of Miss LaJune Rahtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rahtz, and Rhinehardt Behm was solemnized on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. Reading the double ring ceremony was the Rev. H. W. Gross.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding an eggshell tulle with pastel green accessories, and carried a white Bible marked with white camellias.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. George Maske. Her suit was cocoa brown gabardine with brown and white accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses and blue snapdragons.

David Behm, brother of the groom, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rahtz wore an aqua sharkskin suit with white accessories. Her corsage was in gold and yellow spring flowers. Mrs. David Behm's suit was beige gabardine with green accessories with a bronze azalea corsage.

Following the church ceremony a reception was held in the Four Corners Community Hall. The bride's table was covered with a gold brocade cloth with silver candelabra and gold candles. White baskets of dogwood and wild currants were used about the room. Mrs. David Behm cut the cake. Assisting with the serving were the Misses Mary Polales, Nancy Taylor, Carol McLeod, Betty Breakey and Alice Lemman. Mrs. H. E. Dennis served the punch and Mrs. E. J. Purcell, aunt of the bride, presided at the urn. Passing the guest book was Miss D. A. Veen Behm, in charge of gifts was Miss Shirley Brockart.
