Valedictory a Tie at Gervais

Statesman News Service
GERVAIS—Gervais Union High School will have two valedictorians representing the senior class at commencement on May 20. They are Clare Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Woodburn route 2, and Darlene Kleczynski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kleczynski of Gervais route 1.

These two seniors have been active in the Pep Club and Dramatics and have attended the drill four years at this high school.

Lyda Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Young, Gervais route 1, will be salutatorian.

The class of 1952 comprises 16 girls and 15 boys who will receive their diplomas at the high school auditorium. Karl Kahle, principal of Sherwood at High School and former principal of Gervais Union High School, will be the speaker.

Baccalaureate sermon will be held at the high school auditorium Sunday, May 18, at 8 p.m. The speaker will be announced later.

Free Party Saturday for Hts. Children

Statesman News Service
SALEM HEIGHTS—All young people in the Salem Heights-Library area are invited to a free party at 10 a.m. Saturday at Salem Heights Community Hall, the sponsoring Good Shepherd Lutheran Church reported Thursday.

The program is primarily for the Church School of Good Shepherd Church (located on Highway 99-E) as a reward for recent gains in attendance, and all members have been asked to bring guests.

The tentative program includes motion pictures, a ventriloquist, musical numbers, stunts and other entertainment. Pastor Harold Hamilton also will show motion pictures of Camp Colton.
