Surprise Party For Children

A scheduled executive committee of Trinity Ladies Aid for Monday afternoon turned into a surprise for Mrs. Joseph A. Luthro, one of the committee, in honor of Kenneth and Melina, the two children who came recently to make their home with the Rev. and Mrs. Luthro. Approximately 60 attended the event.

Program participation included devotions by Mrs. Silas Rovend, piano numbers by Miss Loretta Toft, Edgar Guest poems read by Mrs. Ed Holden, vocal solos by Miss Janet Kallis and Mrs. Alvin Legard.

The two children each received a card with 60 signatures on it. In addition a substantial gift of money accompanied each card.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Should a dinner hostess keep eating as long as her guests do?

A. Yes. A thoughtful hostess will notice which guests are a little slow, and will so manage her "bites" that she will keep eating as long as her slowest guest.

Q. After seating yourself in church and you discover that you are in a draft, is it proper to ask an usher to close one of the windows?

A. This would be thoughtless on your part, as there may be some other persons near you who are enjoying the fresh air. It is much better to change your seat.

Q. When a married woman is traveling alone, should she sign her name on the telephone register as "Martha L. Randolph"?

A. No. She should use her husband's name and sign "Mrs. Robert A. Randolph, Chicago, Ill."

A Breakfast Hostess

Mrs. Verne Ostrander was hostess for a group of friends at her East Center St. home Thursday morning for a breakfast. Present were Mrs. John Woodward from Hillsboro; Mrs. Eva Bennett and Mrs. Ester Ulvin from Albany; Mrs. Clara Ryerson and Darlene Secor from Fairchild, Calif.; Mrs. Nava Levinson, Pat and Rod, Mrs. Otto Mehlhoff, Mrs. George Schackman, Mrs. W. C. Wilson and Susan; Mrs. Alma Hatfield, Mrs. Lyle White, Mrs. Wesley Carter, Mrs. L. Rudie, Mrs. Al Sholseth, Mrs. Elaine Martin, Mrs. W. McFarland, Mrs. Addie Hansen, Mrs. Donald Townsend, Jimmie and Stevie, Mrs. W. A. Lewis, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Ed Eggers, Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. N. Hathway, Mrs. Lillie Willer, Freddie and Dorothy; Mrs. Cora Hutchinson and the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Clegg entertained members of her club at bridge and a late supper Wednesday night at her North Summer Street home.

Golden Age Club Meets Today

The program for the Golden Age Club meeting at the YWCA today at 2 o'clock was announced at an executive committee meeting this week.

At the Friday meeting, roll call will be answered with a memorial to each person's mother in recognition of Mother's Day. After a short business meeting the movie, "This Wonderful Life," will be shown by the Rev. Burnett J. Holland, assistant minister of the First Presbyterian Church.

A special invitation is being extended to all interested persons to attend the meeting. The group was organized by the YWCA for retired men and women. The fact that men are particularly invited was stressed at the committee meeting. Those present were Mrs. M. B. Stegner, president, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Kummer, vice president and program chairman respectively, and Mrs. S. S. Heard, corresponding secretary.

Further information can be obtained by phoning Mrs. Robert B. Brooks, program director at the YWCA.
