

Drug Store Remodeling Set

Included Tuesday in the Salem city engineer's permits was the $500 alteration of the Mootry Drug Store, 1999 N. Capitol St.

This alteration is to include enlargement of the prescription department, add 19 additional feet depth on the south wall of the store, and construct a doorway entrance on the Fairgrounds Road, Earl Mootry stated. Improvement is to include also a self-service plan for the store, Mootry added.

Also Tuesday at city engineer's office were two alterations of dwellings, one for George Buell, 1995 N. 4th St., $300 and one for Winifrid Condon, 1097 Jefferson St., $150; construction of a garage for H. D. Robinson, 1389 Hines St., $1,700, and construction of a dwelling for M. Orwig, 425 Mission St., $10,500.

Knife, Fork Club Elects Tomlinson

Presidency of the Salem Knife and Fork Club went to E. Harold Tomlinson, Salem attorney, at an election meeting of the board of directors Monday night.

Tomlinson succeeds Guy N. Hickok who will be retained on the board. Hickok will preside at the final dinner meeting of the season Monday night.

Also elected at the meeting were Robert L. Jones, vice president, and W. H. Baillie was continued as secretary.

The board of directors is to consist of Elmer H. Mattson, mayor of Woodburn; L. O. Arens, Dr. Robert D. Gregg, Bayard Findley, T. Harold Tomlinson, Robert L. Jones, J. A. Inglis, Dallas Dr. Brooks H. Moore, and W. H. Baillie. Retiring members of the board are Walter Leth and Edward Majek.

Selected for the season 1952-53 were Sydney Montague, one-time member of the Canadian Mounted Police, Sept. 24; Cameron Ralston, speaking on "The Back Door of History" on Oct. 14; Jack Mallon will conduct an expose of mediums Dec. 5, and on Jan. 15, Dr. No Young Park, a Chinese, is to discuss "A Slant Eyed View of America."

Staff Changes Made at Navy Armory Here

Promotion of one stationkeeper and transfer of another at Salem Naval Reserve Training Center were announced Tuesday.

Kenneth J. Templar was advanced from second class to first class yeoman. He resided at Albany until his return to duty last September and now lives at 2135 N. 17th St. He has nine years of Navy service.

Yeoman 1/c Eugene N. Jarvis, on the staff here for 3½ years, completed his duty here Tuesday and will report May 24 to the USS Gilligan, destroyer escort based at Portland. A Salem resident, he will be replaced here by Radioman 1/c George E. McCormick, now on the Gilligan.
