Rollin Cocking President of W.U. Students

Rollin J. Cocking of Salem, an economics junior, has been elected president of the Willamette University student body, complete tabulations on voting showed Monday.

The elections, preceded by a week of heavy student campaigning, took place on the campus last week. A run-off election for the post of secretary will take place today and Wednesday.

James Hitchman, a history sophomore from Balboa Island, Calif., was elected first vice-president; Robert Stone, a pre-law junior from Port Angeles, Wash., second vice president, and Richard Mercer, pre-dental sophomore from Burlingame, Calif., treasurer. Because they received the top number of votes Mary Ellen Phillips of Neskpeem, Wash., and Marlene Vincent of Medford, both juniors, will vie for the position of secretary.

Cocking, a Salem High School graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cocking, 2325 Mason St. He was president of the sophomore class last school year and this year is a representative of the junior class on the student council.

McKay to Fly To Washington

Gov. Douglas McKay will fly to Washington, D. C., Tuesday to try to convince congress to restore the cuts proposed for federal dam construction in the northwest.

Gov. McKay said private power companies, federal power officials and the northwest governors are united in their campaign to get enough money to finish the eight dams now under construction.

The governor will return Friday night.

Protest Deadline On Assessments Set Next Monday

Marion County property owners this week to file protests against assessments on real and personal property, the equalization board reminded Monday at its organization meeting.

No protests on valuations had been filed by yesterday, according to Assessor Roscoe Shelton, who serves as adviser to the board. They must be made in writing by next Monday to be considered.

The board, which was sworn in yesterday and will reconvene next Tuesday, comprises County Judge Rex Hartley, Manton Carl of Hubson's Clothing Store and Mosier's Tailor Shop. He was born in Sweden, Dec. 16, 1870 and came to the United States at the age of 18.

He married Lena Olson in Webster, S. D. July 3, 1897 and they later moved to Oregon.

He was a member of the Modern Woodman and the Lutheran Church. Survivors include the widow, Lena Larson, Salem; two children, Mrs. Alice M. Allen, Oak Grove, and Clarence Larson, Deer Island.

Funeral arrangements are being made by the W. T. Rigdon Company.
