

Monmouth Greets Kefauver

MONMOUTH—Sen. Estes Kefauver was greeted here officially Thursday by Prof. Charles Noxon of OCE (right) and unofficially by Randy Green, 7, who tried his best to make his headgear look like a coonskin cap for the Democratic presidential aspirant from Tennessee. In background is Campbell Hall where Kefauver addressed 700.

Stayton Will Elect Mayor, 3 Councilmen

Statesman News Service
STAYTON — Stayton residents will elect a mayor, three councilmen and a city treasurer on the municipal ballot here Friday.

Mayor M. J. Martin, incumbent, seeks re-election. He is opposed by Marcel Van Driesche, candidate for mayor of Stayton, was confined to his home Wednesday with rheumatic fever. Van Driesche, who became ill Monday, said he hoped to be "back on the job" within a month, although his physician had advised that he remain home "indefinitely."

by Marcel VanDriesche, Stayton theater manager.

The nine candidates for three council seats are John Etzel, Francis Forrette, Adrian Hermens, Chris Neitling, Irvin Parberry, George Schlies, Jacob Spaniol and Everett B. Ward. All are candidates at large and citizens of Stayton may vote for any three of them.

Parberry and Schlies are incumbent councilmen. G. W. Schacht-sick, incumbent, does not seek re-election.

City Treasurer Bernice Camp seeks a return to office and is unopposed on the ballot.

Three Run For Yamhill Commissioner

Statesman News Service
McMINNVILLE—Three Republican candidates for county commissioner will provide most of the competition for Yamhill County offices in the primaries Friday.

They are Charles A. Newman, McMinnville (incumbent); A. N. (Nic) Nicolai, McMinnville; and Raymond W. Williams, Carlton route 1. No Democrats filed for the post.

Republican candidates for two state representative posts are Carl H. Francis, Dayton (incumbent); R. H. Windshar, McMinnville, and George Laymon, Newberg. There are no Democratic candidates.

Republican candidates without primary opposition include Sheriff W. J. Jones, Coroner Glen C. May, Surveyor H. W. Herring and Kenneth E. Shetterly Sr., justice of the peace at Willamina.

Frank Holmes, McMinnville Democrat (incumbent) seeks re-nomination as justice of the peace at McMinnville. Rollin B. Wood, Carlton route 1, is a candidate for the post on the Republican ticket.

Other Democrats unopposed in the primary are William H. Kerr, McMinnville, candidate for sheriff; and David J. Boss, Newberg, candidate for coroner.

County School Superintendent D. Lynn Gulber seeks a return to office. He is unopposed.

Food Prices to Increase Soon

CLEVELAND (AP)—Some food prices will increase soon but the boost will amount to "only pennies" in the housewife's budget, Price Stabilizer Ellis G. Arnall said Tuesday.

"The average family is going to have to spend a few pennies more each week for some foods," he said in a speech before the Super Market Institute. "But I am confident that the great system of American competition will operate to keep those pennies at a minimum."

He did not list what foods would be affected.

Parberry and Schlies are incumbent councilmen. G. W. Schacht-sick, incumbent, does not seek re-election.

City Treasurer Bernice Camp seeks a return to office and is unopposed on the ballot.
