Variety to Spice Independence Hobby Show Sunday Afternoon

INDEPENDENCE—A jewel exhibit by Kappa Pi art fraternity members and metal students at OCE will be on display at the Community Hobby Show, which will be open to the public, Sunday afternoon at Henry Hill School auditorium.

The fraternity organization is sponsored by Mrs. Pearl B. Heath, head of the art department at OCE. She will give a demonstration in metal work at 7 p. m.

Other demonstrations will be textile painting by Mrs. Paul Hirschy and Mrs. Beryl Fletcher. Of interest, especially to fishermen, will be the demonstration by Clifford Warden in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morland will exhibit and demonstrate textile weaving in the afternoon.

Mrs. Marshall Powell, general chairman, states that a large number of hobbyists have responded. Among them are painting and sculpting by Luckiamute art association members. John Horn, professor at OCE, and head of the association will display some of his work.

There will be wood working, doll and rock collections, leather work, a number of antiques, a display of more than 200 ear rings, and flower arrangements from the Independence Garden Club. The children from Henry Hill School will exhibit work they have completed in the "Hobby Time" class. Exhibits will be divided into children, high school and adult sections.

LIBERTY—Possibilities of a new Liberty schoolhouse will be discussed at a meeting early in June, it was reported Wednesday at the Liberty Mothers Club meeting.

The club will sponsor the meeting which residents of the district and representatives from the Salem school board will be invited to attend.

Officer installed at Wednesday's meeting were Mrs. Ed Holden, president; Mrs. Fred Fagg, vice-president; Mrs. Lewis Clark, secretary and Mrs. Robert Morrow, treasurer. Mrs. Sid VanDyke was installing officer.

It was announced there would be ample water supply for the school by next term. Mrs. Richard Orser reported on the Girl Scout and Brownie troops and the scout picnic planned for Saturday, May 24 at Crestwood Acres. Mothers interested in scouting are urged to attend. Pre-school children are also invited and must be accompanied by a parent.

Mrs. Mervin Seager told of the Cub Scouts. Plans are being made for forming a cub pack in the Liberty area. There is need for a cubmaster and cub scout committee men. The school picnic will be May 29, and the club will furnish ice cream. Mrs. Wilbur Kurth is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ida Newton.
