

How to Buy Chateau Cheap

PARIS (AP) - Want to buy a good chateau cheap? The French government is offering one—known as the Versailles of the Guyenne region—for the price of a suburban house: $14,255. And there have been no bidders, it was learned today.

The Chateaus of Eprenon overlooks the Garonne River 20 miles from Bordeaux. It was built in 1598 and in its sculptured, high-ceilinged salons the Duke entertained the French Kings Louis XII and Louis XIV, Cardinal Richelieu and Ann of Austria. For the last 140 years its has been a women's prison. The government's Beaux Arts Ministry says the fireplaces alone are worth $28,570.

Police Disperse Italy Red Parade

ROME (AP) - Tough Italian riot police have adopted two successful new tactics to disperse Communist parades without bloodshed. The first is by using fire hoses. Specially colored water is used so rioters hit by it bear a tell-tale mark. The second tactic was used recently when a mass meeting of an estimated 100,000 Communists began dispersing in unauthorized parades. Police let groups of about 2,000 men take one street out of the central square. Then they cut off the street. The paraders, seeing themselves isolated from the others, dispersed. The "colors" used by today's military organizations are direct descendants of knights and barons in the Middle Ages.

On the same day the congregation will be host to the Southern Conference Sunday School association of the Pacific Synod of the United Lutheran church in America. An invitation is extended to the residents of the community to share in the cornerstone laying.
