Memorial Day Services Set At Hopewell

UNIONVALE—The Unionvale and Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren Churches and the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Hopewell will join in a union service at the Hopewell cemetery on Memorial Day, May 30, at 11 a.m. Special music will be a feature of the open air service. Lynn Gubser and George Penrose will speak. A picnic lunch will be held under the trees at noon with everyone bringing their lunch.

A group of the younger set charivariated Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Brast of Wheatland last week. The young serenaders were Carol, Linda and Frank Rutschman; Elise, Gene and Gayle Steingrube; Skippy Doller and Stanley and Wayne Withee. They were accompanied by their parents who also provided refreshments.

The annual picnic of the Seventh Day Adventist School at Hopewell was held in the Williamson Park Sunday. Mr. Adah Launer celebrated her 84th birthday Friday when several neighbors visited her. In the evening Mrs. Launer was a guest at the home of her son and family, the Ari Launers for supper. Her sister, Lou Howe of Albany, also visited her.

OCe Mothers Club Chooses Officers

MONMOUTH—Mrs. Harold DeVries of Salem was elected secretary of the OCE Mothers Club here Saturday. Mrs. Mabel Reid, Monmouth, was elected treasurer. Mrs. Grant Fulmer, Milwaukie, was elected president and Mrs. Dorothy Eberhardt, Portland, vice president. On the nominating committee were Mrs. John Burcham, Mrs. Harriet Smithson and Mrs. Elmer Boyer, all of Salem. The meeting was the final one of the season.

Roberts School Exercises Pass With Consolidation

ROBERTS—For the first time in the history of Roberts School there will be no graduation exercises this spring as this past year the school district was voted into the Salem school system, automatically eliminating the eighth grade graduation.

After this month there will no longer be a seventh and eighth grade class at Roberts, and with the end of school 18 pupils are expected to be promoted from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades to junior high school. Elna Staggs and Mary Litchfield, present teachers at Roberts, have signed contracts to return next fall.

Due to increased population in this community the school is expected to have a large enrollment for the fall opening and additional improvements throughout the school building are planned for this summer to bring the building up to standard requirements.

Hts. Scouts Get Awards At Ceremony

SALEM HEIGHTS—The court of honor of Boy Scout troop 18 of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church was held Monday evening at the church on the Pacific Highway.

Jack Rhodes, neighborhood commissioner, conducted the investiture ceremony. Receiving their tenderfoot badges were Bert Fanning, Don Lee, Nathan Cox, Sonny Dunn and John Anderson.

Second class awards were presented to Dennis Nelson, Victor Bonogofski, Larry Wolite, Allen Carter and Gerald Elston by troop committeemen, Harvey Peterson and the Rev. Harold Hamilton. Jim Kellogg was presented his first class pin by his mother. He in turn pinned a miniature first class pin on his mother.

Merit badges were awarded to Jim Kellogg, Dennis Nelson, Joe Renault and Jerry Seeger. The troop outing on Saturday was a fish fry. The evening was spent at a camp fire on Browns Island, where the explorers were inducted into the post. Frank Viarls, Sunday school superintendent, of Leslie Methodist Church, conducted the ceremony, with Scoutmaster Berl Davis and Explorer Advisor Harvey Peterson assisting. Inducted to the Explorer Post were Jim Kellogg, John Anderson, Joe Renault and Berl Davis.

Grassmen's Field Day Set Friday, OSC

SILVERTOWN—Two Silvertown grass growers, who are presidents of two different grass associations are announcing meetings simultaneously for Friday, May 23, at Corvallis.

Oscar Loe, president of the Alta Fescue Growers and Floyd Fox, president of the Northwest Chewings and Red Creeping Fescue Growers have arranged the field-day.

The program starts at 10 a.m. (daylight saving time) in Room 118 of the Food Technology Building on the Oregon State College campus.

Fox reports that fescue market outlook will be reviewed by Marion Thomas, extension agricultural economist; Mrs. Louisa Kanipe, head seed analyst from the state; federal cooperative seed testing laboratory will discuss seed samples and show visitors through the laboratory. Growers from Oregon's various seed producing areas will tell of the crop outlook. Rex Warren, college farm crop specialist, will discuss seed production.

The experiment station tour in the afternoon will be conducted by Henry Rampton and Virgil Freed, both agronomists at the state college, and Richie Cowan, professor of farm crops.

All growers, say Fox, whether they are members of either of the associations are welcome to attend the field day.

Loe is rated as one of the larger seed producers in the United States.

OCe Mothers Club Chooses Officers

MONMOUTH—Mrs. Harold DeVries of Salem was elected secretary of the OCE Mothers Club here Saturday. Mrs. Mabel Reid, Monmouth, was elected treasurer. Mrs. Grant Fulmer, Milwaukie, was elected president and Mrs. Dorothy Eberhardt, Portland, vice president. On the nominating committee were Mrs. John Burcham, Mrs. Harriet Smithson and Mrs. Elmer Boyer, all of Salem. The meeting was the final one of the season.
