

Republican Presidential Prospect --- GOV. EARL WARREN

AP Newscasters CURBS at the age of 6 were no indication of Earl Warren's future career.

WORLD WAR I was a better idea. He enlisted as a private in 1917 and came out as a first lieutenant.

DISTRICT Attorney Warren was the designation in 1925. This picture of the prosecutor was taken in 1926.

SHRINE activities became an important part of his life. He became a potentate in the Masonic organization.

GOVERNORSHIP of California has come to Warren three times. Once both of the major parties nominated him.

VICE-PRESIDENTIAL candidate in 1948, he participated in the first political campaign in which he met defeat. Here he is shown with his family, wife, six children and the wife of one of the sons.

PRESIDENTIAL nomination is again his ambition and he is campaigning vigorously in the traditional manner.

WARREN as a young man in military uniform.

Pvt. Delapp At Korea Front

WITH THE 2D INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—Pvt. William L. Delapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Delapp, 1090 N. Church St., Salem, Ore., is now serving on the muddy Korean battlefield with the 2d Infantry Division. Patrols from the division have been probing Communist positions along the central front despite the handicap of mud, fog and rain. Delapp is assigned to occupational therapy duties in the division. He is a graduate of George Fox College and holds a B.A. degree in sociology and economics.

Better Than American
LONDON (AP)—Anyway, British jam is better than American jam. So there.
A team of British experts who spent seven weeks in the United States studying the American jam, pickle and kindred industries reported American jam lacks the "rich flavor" of the British product.
