

Yamato-Poppenheim Scrap Tops Armory Mat Bee Tonight

Jap Tot Yamato, minus his red shoes (they were stolen from him here last week), takes on Kurt von Poppenheim tonight in the main feature of Matchmaker Elton Owen's Armory wrestling show, a brawl between the two produced a week ago, when they were supposed to be partners in a battle against Frank Stojack and Bill Melby.

The sinister Oriental from Singapore, and the Proud Prussian wound up that one teeing off on one another more than on their ring enemies, and the win went to the Stojack-Melby combo. Stojack scored the winner when he hopped on Yamato, who had been decked by a poke to the snout from "pal" von Poppenheim.

Boss Owen decided that inasmuch as the two finished their chores trying to finish each other, Yamato and "Poppy" would make for a dandy grudge mainer tonight. Poppenheim will be bigger than the Singapore Slinger, but "Poppy" doesn't have the wicked Judo chops and sleeper hold the squat Jap possesses and uses.

As far as the fans are concerned it won't make much difference who clobbers who in the mainer, so long as they both get clobbered. Bot Yamato and Poppy are about as popular as a twin-headed rattlesnake.

The semiwindup special should be the direct opposite of the expected stormy mainer. Stojack and his giant whirls, airplane spins, etc., will be against Bustin

Victoria Boss Holds to Lead

Salem Leads Fielding, Also 'Dee-Pee' Column

Victoria Manager Cece Garriott, with a .390 average, continued to lead Western International League batsmen through games on Monday, May 26, according to official statistics released by the Howe News Bureau of Chicago. In second place, with .381, is Catcher Walt Pockey of Wenatchee.

Garriott also led in runs with 88 and in doubles with 12.

Vic Buccola of Tri-City led in stolen bases with 13 and John Ritchey of Vancouver topped the triple-makers with Jerry Zuvella of Yakima, each with four. Pockey had most hits, 51, along with Yakima's Bill Andring, and Pockey topped the total bases column with 75. Mel Wasley of Spokane led the runs batted in group with 87.

Spokane's John Conant with 6-0, Victoria's Al McInnis with 5-0, and Wenatchee's Chuck Oubre with 4-0 led the pitchers.

Salem led team fielding with a .972 mark and in double plays with 47. Victoria had the best hitting team, at .395. Third a week previous, Salem fell to seventh in team hitting, with a .250 mark. Statistics:
