Miss Simpson Tells Troth At Dinner

At a birthday dinner at Todd Hall on the Oregon College of Education campus at Monmouth Monday night, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Edithanne Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell Simpson of Salem, to Lawrence A. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi A. Miller of Hubbard. No immediate plans have been made for the wedding.

Ceods learned the news by announcements cleverly concealed in the place cards. The occasion was the last birthday dinner of the season and honored girls having summer birthdays.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem schools and spent her freshman year at the Willamette University Music School. She has now completed her junior year in teacher training at Oregon College of Education.

Mr. Miller is a graduate of Hubbard schools and took his first two years at Willamette University, also studying in the music school. He recently returned from active service with the U. S. Navy and has registered for his junior year in education at Oregon College of Education. Both Miss Simpson and her fiancé are active in musical events on the campus.

Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby presented her piano pupils in a recital at her home on Tuesday night. Playing were Susie Guthrie, Sandra Hill, Joyce Brown, Wanda Noel, Ann Ross, Janet McAlpine and Todd Salisbury.

G. Burriss will attend the graduation of their daughter, Marilyn (Mrs. Dan Graham) . . .

Arriving . . . in the capital today by plane will be Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Rowan of Oakland, Calif., who will be the week-end guests of Mrs. Rowan's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell . . .

the CONTOUR
Cocktail Lounge Chair

Here's styling that makes a showplace out of a drab corner. Comfort you'd never dream possible in a budget-priced chair. No doubt you can think of dozens of uses for this chair in your own home while you are reading this. It has that same soft resilient spring edge seat you'd find in chairs two and three times the cost. The seat is deep enough to cushion even a six-footer's frame. It's filled with rubberized hair that bounces back into shape, and plump cotton felt over No-Sag springs. It's a big 31" high by a full 22" deep, and 24" wide. Fits beautifully anywhere in a modern or traditional home. Easy to assemble. Choose from a beautiful assortment of luxurious textured fabrics and plastics in the season's smartest colors.

You'll want one or more for your boudoir, sun room, den or living room, three or four for television or your game room. Hotelmen, restaurants and clubs will also want to snap them up. It's made by Selig of Leominster, the greatest name in chairs.

The spine-soothing contour chair follows the lines of your body. You can relax completely from head to foot because it's shaped to fit. Buy one, two or more for your home.
