

Chiefs Nab Finale, Halt Senator Surge in 9-1 Win

'Andy' Defeats Guerrero in Race; Tri-City 9 Moves in for Series

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

Lefty Dave Dahle, the former Stanford U and Oakland Oaks slugger is currently Enemy No. 1 in the Salem Senators baseball family, for the pert southpaw subdued the Solons 9-1 last night at Waters Field and put a nasty crimp in the local aspirations for a berth in the WIL's first division. Dahle yielded but six hits, whiffed six and walked only one in salvaging the only game of the series for Mgr. Dick Adams' Chiefs.

The loss kept the Solons from reaching the even .500 mark and amounted to their second setback in the last seven games. The Senators are still in fifth place, but are only a whoop and a holler behind the fourth place Vancouverers and but two games in arrears of the third place Lewiston Broncs.

DeGeorge to Hurl
Tri-City's Braves wheel into town tonight to open a four-game series at 8:15 o'clock, a series in which Boss Hugh Luby's lads could do themselves nothing but good. Sal DeGeorge (2-3) will be on the firing line in the opener. It's a cinch the Braves won't lead with Ralph Romero, their shutout artist, for he pitched only one night before last.

The Tri-City double will be capped by a 6:30 doubleheader Sunday, and it'll be "Country Store Night" that night. Special Events Chairman Gene Vandenevnde has lined up a load of groceries, etc., to be given away between ball games of the twin bill.

About the only thing the Solons salvaged last night was a win by Fletch' Andy Anderson in the pre-game match race around the bases against Ben Guerrero of the Chiefs. Andy checked in a respectable 14.8 seconds for his tour (the world record is 13.2) and Guerrero did it in 16 seconds flat. Andy picked up $10 for the win, Guerrero $5.

May Race Saturday

Anderson will possibly play in the fastest Tri-City player in a special pre-game match Saturday night.

Big Ted Edmunds, who had been sailing along in great shape as both starter and reliever for the Senators, took last night's licking. The Chiefs got him for four unearned, but nonetheless big runs in the first inning when a walk, a costly error by young Tommy Gall with two outs, a single by Bud Helmaa and Ross McCormack's line drive home run over the right field fence got the ill-fated rattle under way.

Edmunds served up no-hit baseball for the next six innings, although he was in wee shape because of his sickness. The Chiefs got another run in the fifth without a hit, Edmunds wild pitching it across after he had walked the first swinger of the frame.

Francis Makes Debut

A walk and two hits brought another Chief run home in the eighth, and in the ninth Ted was bombed out with a three-run uprising. Youngster Bud Francis, making his first local appearance of the season, hurled the last two-thirds of the Wenchatchee ninth, giving up a two-run double to Adams.

The Sales could do next to nothing with Dahle and their run was unearned. Dick Bartle got an infield hit in the fifth and Norm Ridgeway erred on Jim Deyo's grounder. Gall and Edmunds skied out, but Gene Tansell lined a single off Guerrero's glove to score Bartle.

That was the lone serious Salem threat of the evening. Edmund's loss was his second, against five wins. Another cold night kept the attendance down to 1,215. It's "Police Department Third Base Club Night" for the kids tonight, too. Lefty Larry Mann is no longer with the club, having been returned to Sacramento by Boss Luby.

Football is West Virginia University's oldest intercollegiate sport. It started there in 1891. Baseball came next in 1894.

Fistic Group Stands Behind Matthews Boss

SEATTLE (AP)—Dr. Leslie Simkins said Thursday the Washington Athletic Commission "has full confidence in Jack Hurley and his boxer. We don't believe he (Hurley) would violate a contract."

Simkins, the commission chairman, issued his statement after Marv Jensen, manager of Rex Layne, said in Philadelphia he held a contract for a bout June 19 between Layne and Hurley's fighter, Harry Matthews.

Hurley is in New York to arrange a go for Matthews with Rocky Marciano. Jensen said he was told by Harvey Miller, secretary of the National Boxing Association, "to get the Washington State Athletic Commission to suspend Matthews if he doesn't go through with the fight. He said all other NBA strikes would honor the suspension."

Matthews defeated Layne May 19 in Portland, Ore. Jensen said after the fight that he and Hurley had agreed upon a return match.

"We have no request for action against Hurley and Matthews," Simkins said. "Should the matter be referred to our body of course, we would review the affair."

The proof is in the catch. After all other types of flies had failed to score, these trout responded to an artificial nymph.

By DON HARGER
Fishing in Oregon's lakes proved rather spotty over the opening weekend. Early reports coming in show that although many fine catches were made a goodly number of the piscators who braved mow banks came home empty handed. East and Paulina Lakes came through in their usual style and produced many limit catches. Fish were taken both on the troll and on single eggs. A few of the fish were fortunate enough to see, looked in excellent condition and all ran to a fair size. With continued warm weather the lake fishing should improve rapidly.

In many places there were more fishermen than fish. We were informed that at one time during the past weekend there were better than 100 boats on tiny Lost Lake. We haven't heard of half that number of fish coming from the little highway lake. The ones that were taken, however, were the fattest brook trout we have ever seen.

Since their first trip when Elton "Bud" Lafky and Ronald Brunk, North 21st Street neighbors, returned from the Santiam with four spring chinook taken on spinning tackle, things have not been going so well. Sometimes it pays to quite with a high score. The two Willamette U. anglers were lucky on that first evening, taking their four fish weighing from 7 to 20 lbs. Since then they have hooked many but the salmon won't have their own ideas and consistently walk off with lures and yards of line.

Facts Prove More Nymph Flies Should Be Used

Your "hop-along" fishing janitor is constantly amazed at the continued lack of interest displayed by the western angler with regard to artificial nymphs in trout fishing. Estimates run from 57 percent to as high as 85 percent on the amount of under water bug life that goes toward making up a trout's diet. Regardless of this fact it seems that most of the fly rod anglers would much rather use a dry fly.

We must confess that fishing a nymph properly is the toughest of all angling methods to learn. It is not just a matter of casting the imitation and letting things take care of themselves. Nymph fishing calls for a sharp eye and a quick hand. It also calls for a... (Continued on next page)

Cubs Topple Giants Yanks Win, Near Lead

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers steamed three games ahead in the National League pennant race Thursday while the Cleveland Indians regained the upper hand in the American.

Big Ben Wade turned in his first major league shutout as he pitched the Dodgers to a 2-0 victory over the tail-end Pittsburgh Pirates. Wade's fifth victory enabled the Brooks to move three up on the New York Giants, who dropped a 3-1 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

Early Wynn came up with his first shutout of the season to put the Indians at the top of the heap. Wynn blanked the Boston Red Sox, eastwhile pace-setters, 5-0. Wade Winner

Wade handcuffed the Pirates on five singles, walked five and fanned six. The Brooks missed numerous opportunities to run up a large score. They collected six hits and 15 walks from three Pittsburgh pitchers but 16 Dodgers were left on base.

Eddie Miksis' first home run of the season ruined the Giants. The Cub infielder connected with one on and two out in the seventh to break a 1-1 tie and give lefty Paul Minner the first triumph of his career over the Giants.

Lefty Harry Perkowski also recorded his fifth conquest as the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-3, in the National other game. Sain Game's Star

The rising New York Yankees stopped the Chicago White Sox, 6-4, with Johnny Sain starring both at bat and on the mound. The third place Yanks are only 1 1/2 games behind the Indians.

Sain doled out seven hits and drove in the deciding runs with a two-run single in the fifth inning. Sain almost ruined his own cause in the second when he committed two errors that led to three Chicago runs. The victory was Sain's fifth and the Yank's seventh straight over Chicago.

In night games, the Detroit Tigers trounced the Athletics, 12-2, at Philadelphia, and the Boston Braves whipped the Cards, 8-3, at St. Louis.

10-Inning Tie In Softy Play

The Commercial Seat Covers and Postal Carriers waged a 1-1 tie in Industrial League softball play Thursday, the pitching battle between A. Meyer and Gene Lebold going 10 innings. The Seat Covers got nine hits to six for the Carriers. Lebold whiffed 10.

In the other league game the Fire Department edged out the Telephone CWA nine, 7-6. Industrial play tonight has First Christian Church playing the Bears at Olinger Field, 6 o'clock. Hollies Again Tap Bevov; Oaks' Gregg in 1-Hitter

by The Associated Press
The Hollywood Stars again toppled the sagging Portland Beavers in Coast League play Thursday night, 6-4, Dick Wilson smashing a home run in the ninth inning with two men on to win the game. It was the Hollies' sixth straight win.

The loss kept the Beavers within a breath of the last place Sacramento club, which also got beat by Oakland and Hal Gregg's sparkling one-hit mound performance. In other games the Los Angeles Angels beat the league-leading San Diego Padres 6-2 and Seattle's surging Rainiers nailed San Francisco twice, 3-2 and 3-1.

Pinch-hitter Wilson walloped his game winning blow off Relief Pitcher Larry Ward after Portland had gone ahead in the ninth with one run on four hits.

Only 482 fans watched Gregg's stint at Oakland, the attendance being cut by the televised Walcott-Charles boxing bout.

Nanny Fernandez delivered the payoff blows in both tilts at Seattle. Home runs by Chuck Connor and Les Layton were the big Angel blows in beating the Padres.

Close Verdict Over Charles In 15-Rounder

By JACK HAND

JERRY JOE WALCOTT Again wins over Charles.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott, 38-year-old Cinderella man of the ring, clung to his world heavyweight boxing title Thursday night by wining an unanimous decision over ex-champ Ezzard Charles.

Proving once more that old champs never come back, the incredible old father of six kids from Camden, N. J., shook off bombing shots by Charles to grab the votes of all three officials in a slow fight at Municipal Stadium.

Referee Zach Clayton, who warned Charles for low blows in the third, fifth and 13th rounds, voted Walcott his biggest margin, 9-6. Judge Buck McTiernan, who refereed the Pittsburgh match last July when Walcott knocked out Charles to win the title on the fifth try, had it for Walcott 8-7. Judge Pete Tomasco scored it for Walcott 7-6-2.

The Associated Press card had Charles a 7-6-2 winner. There was considerable disagreement at ringside among the working press at the verdict.

This was a dull fight in contrast to the thriller last July 18 at Forbes Field when underdog Walcott won boxing's richest prize with a clean cut knockout. There were no knockdowns in the closely fought contest although both men were wobbled with right hand shots.

Walcott at 196 1/2 had five pounds on Charles, who at 191 1/2 was the heaviest of his career.

Bidding to become the first ex-heavy champ ever to regain his title where such greats as Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Jack Dempsey, Max Baer and Joe Louis failed, Charles failed like all the rest.

Ezzard had cuts over both eyes (Continued on next page.)
