

Women's Section

It's Convention Time...

Admiring "Mr. and Mrs. Lion" (delegates-at-large), who will be part of the decor for the social events during the state Lions Auxiliary convention to be held here today, Monday and Tuesday are (left to right) Mrs. James Tindall, general convention chairman, Mrs. Al J. Crose of Salem, president of the state auxiliary, and Mrs. Denver Young, also of Salem, the state secretary. Theme of the convention is "Put Your Shoulder to the Wheel." (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Members of the women's committee planning the entertainment for the wives of the Oregon State Bankers Association, who will be here with their husbands for the annual state convention, June 16 and 17, are (left to right) Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mrs. Carroll Meeks and Mrs. Arthur Atherton, general chairman. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Mrs. LeRoy J. Stewart and Mrs. William R. Newmyer, two of the committee chairmen, who have been working diligently the last few months on social events for the state Lions Auxiliary convention opening today. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Ceramic wheel barrows filled with strawberries will be the favors at the fun breakfast of the state Lions Auxiliary convention Monday morning. Three of the committee members pictured above with the favors are Mrs. Glen Weaver, Mrs. Virgil Pade and Mrs. L. K. Lawrence. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

A golf tournament for the women will be one of the features for the wives here for the Oregon State Bankers convention. The tourney will be held on June 16 at the Salem Golf Club. The threesome planning the event includes (left to right) Mrs. Chester Lee, Mrs. Lawrence J. Smith of Dallas and Mrs. Wesley E. Ritchie. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Tea on Wednesday...

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

One of the larger affairs of the coming week will be the tea for which Mrs. Howard Nelson Hunsaker will be hostess on Wednesday at her Trade Street home for the pleasure of her daughter-in-law-to-be, Miss Jean Shepherd, who will be married to Morris Robert Hunsaker on June 22, the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. William Shepherd, who is here from her home in Pepeekeo, Hawaii for the wedding, and Mrs. Howard N. Hunsaker Jr. of Roseburg. Guests have been bidden to call between 3 and 6 o'clock.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. Ben Maxwell, Mrs. Jack Henningsen, Mrs. Merle D. Travis, Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mrs. Clifford Taylor and Mrs. Morrell Cray.

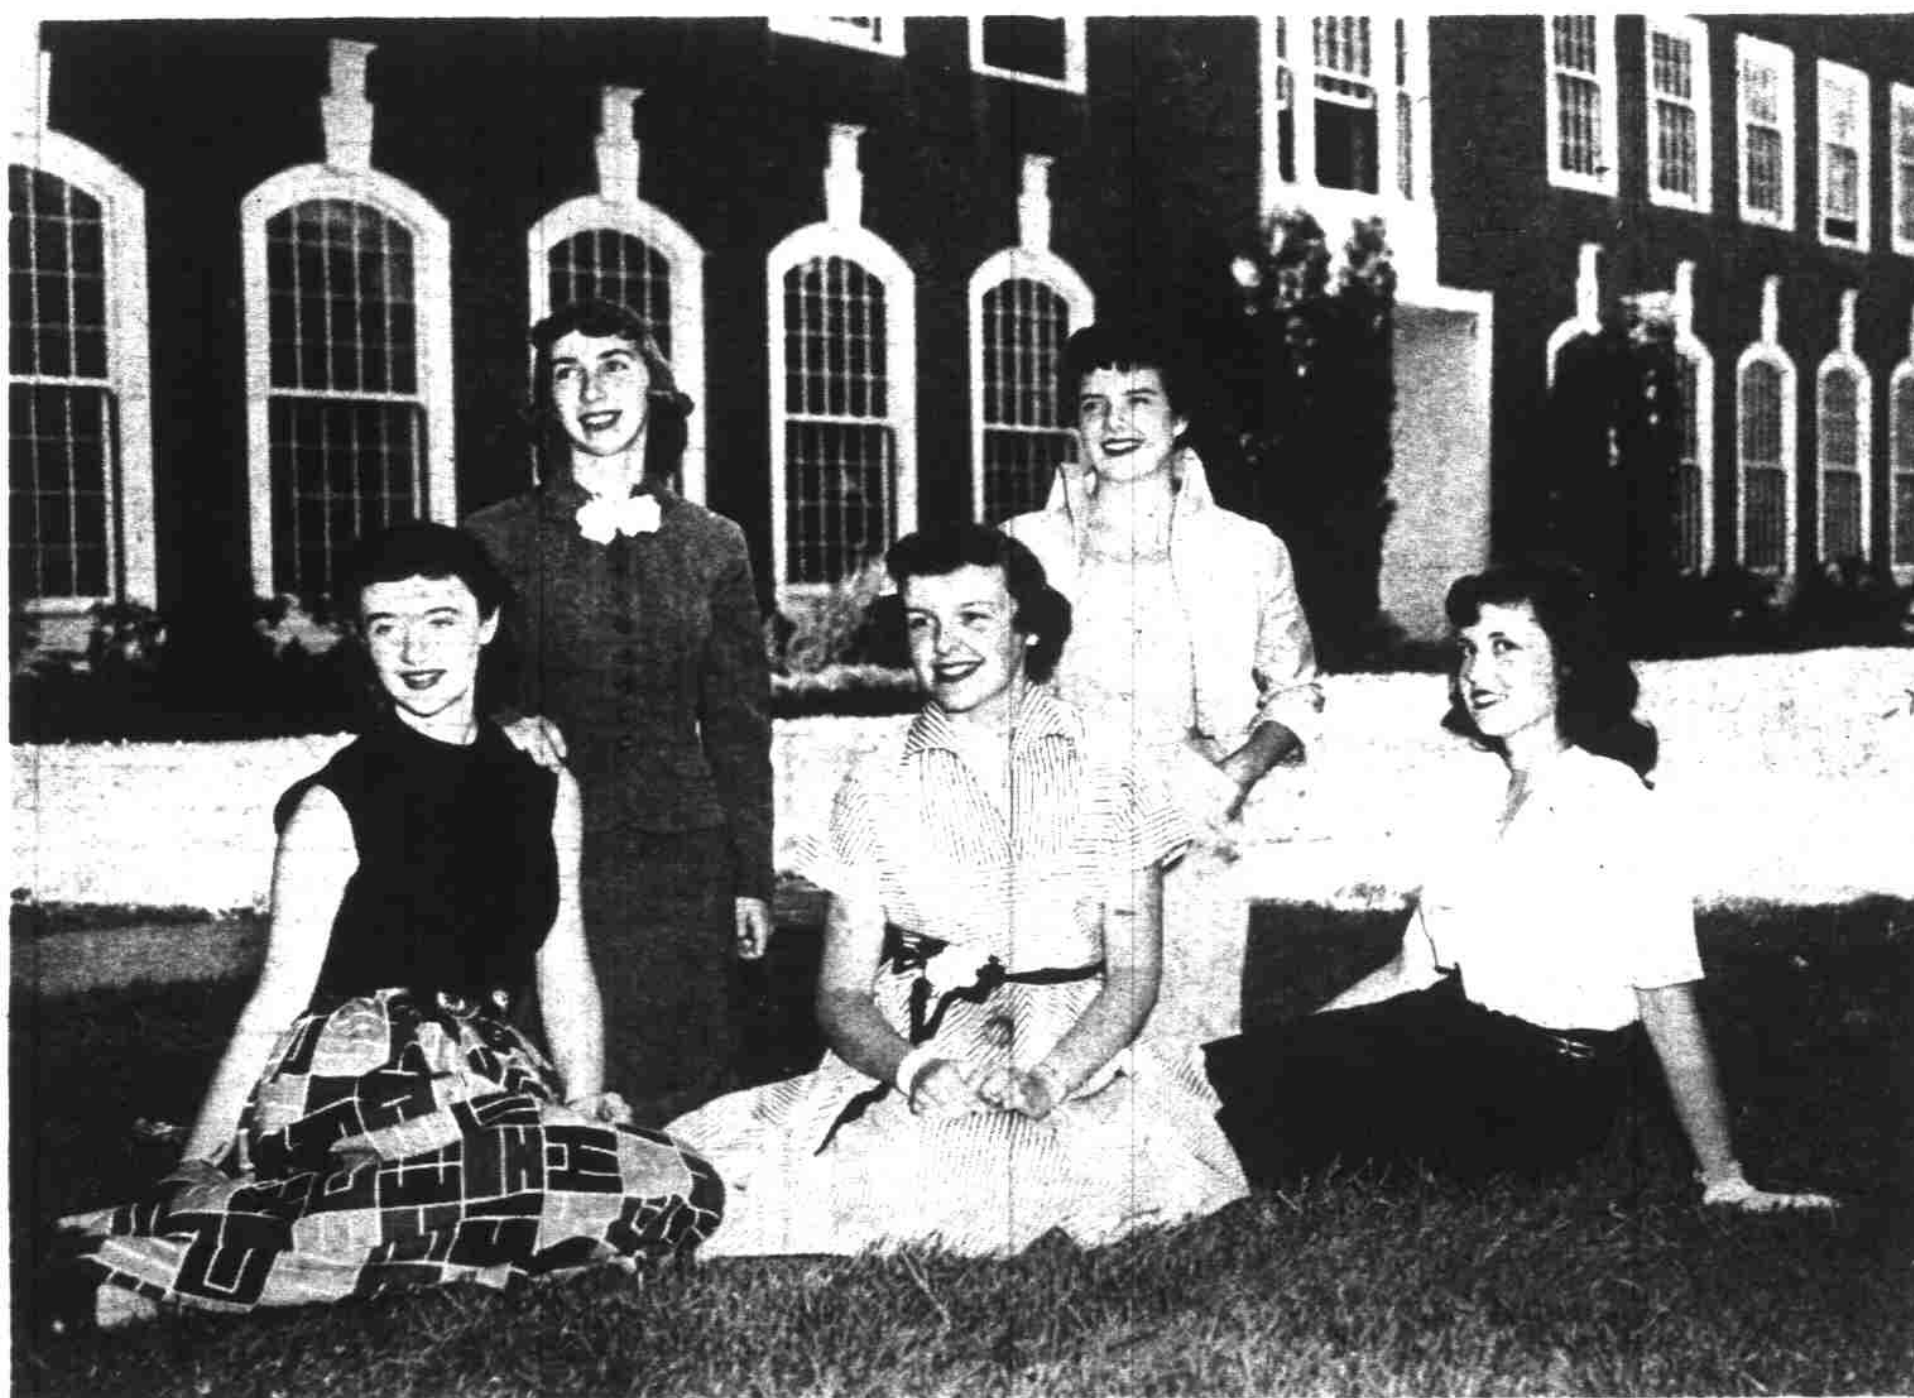

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. W. E. Martin, Mrs. Floyd Kibbe, Mrs. James Turnbull, Mrs. W. W. McKinney, Mrs. J. D. Berwick, Mrs. Alvin Luhr, Mrs. E. T. Borkman, Mrs. C. S. McCollam, Mrs. Loren Spence, Miss Betty Lou Beckman, Miss Wilda Siegmund, Miss Hazel Price and the hostess' two daughters, Mrs. Dee Hines of Portland and Mrs. J. H. Tompkins Jr. of Dayton.

Plans Completed

Plans for the wedding of Miss Shepherd and Mr. Hunsaker have been completed. The bride-elect and her parents have taken an apartment on North Commercial Street until after the ceremony.

The couple will exchange their vows on Sunday, June 22 at the First Congregational Church at 4:30 o'clock with the Rev. Seth Huntington officiating.

Mrs. Gilbert Oliver of Portland will be the matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Marilyn Brooks and Miss Martha Brooks of Portland. Howard Hunsaker Jr. will stand with his brother as best man. Ushers include Daryle Sim and Newell Williams Jr. A reception will follow in the church parlors.

Eight high school girls have been chosen by the three American Legion Auxiliary Units in Salem to attend the 10th annual Girl's State sessions on the Willamette University campus this week. Directly above are Sharon Larson, Kay Lovell and Glenna Allmer.

Pictured at the left in front of Collins Hall on the Willamette campus are (left to right) Louise Owens, Margaret Bach, Patsy Snider, Pat Cameron and Jackie Jones. (Kennell-Ellis Photos).