A JUNE SAILING DATE . . . for the Loren Hicks family, who are bound for the British Isles and European continent come Friday . . . Entraining for New York City, from where they will sail on June 18 on the Queen Elizabeth will be Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and their children, Graham and Kenneth and Mrs. Hicks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson, who are returning to their home in Glasgow, Scotland, after a two and a half years residency in Salem . . . This will be Mrs. Hicks first visit home in five years . . . The family will first go to London, where they will spend six weeks with Mrs. Hicks' sister . . . and from there will go to Glasgow for a month's visit . . . Loren and Muriel will leave their children with her parents in Glasgow while they tour the European continent in an English car, which they have purchased and is awaiting them on their arrival in London . . . They will visit in Belgium, Holland, Germany, France and Switzerland . . . they will stop in London going and coming and plan to visit all parts of England . . . The Hicks family will sail October 22 for the states, arriving in Salem on November 4 . . .

Noteworthy . . . In making plans for their stay in Glasgow, Loren and Muriel wrote about hotel accommodations as none of her relatives' homes were large enough for an additional four persons . . . but the hotel rates were so expensive that they decided to send an advertisement to the newspaper for a furnished house to rent for a month . . . They knew that people often rented their homes while they were away in the summer, but had no idea they would receive 52 answers to their ad . . . Loren then spent weeks acknowledging the offers received and have rented a lovely home just a few blocks from where Muriel spent her childhood . . .

Also Europe bound . . . this month will be Nancy Buren, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren, who now makes her home in Portland, where she is on the staff of the Emanuel Hospital . . . Accompanying Nancy on the two month trip will be her former Oregon State College classmate and Pi Beta Phi sorority sister, Dorothy Dale of Portland . . . They leave Portland on June 20 and entrain for New York, where they will sail on the Normandie . . . On the young traveler's itinerary are England, France, The Netherlands, Germany, Italy and Switzerland . . .

WEDDING ECHOES . . . So unusual and pretty the dresses of the attendants and of the bride at the marriage of Barbara Bates and Edward Jones a week ago . . . The gowns of organza and designed by the bride, herself . . . Mrs. Arthur Bates making the exquisite dress for her daughter . . . embroidered organza combined with the organza for Barbara's dress and for a touch of blue . . . a pale blue satin sash and blue satin ballet slippers . . . her short veil so full and caught to a lace cap . . . The attendants' dresses of blue organza and made similar to Barbara's . . . the girls carrying striking fans of deep red flowers and Ti leaves and wearing little nose veils . . .

The newlyweds . . . all smiles as they walked up the aisle of the First Presbyterian Church after repeating their vows . . . Barbara so sweet and happy . . . a word for everyone . . . and later the couple mingling with the guests while eating their wedding cake and punch . . . The bride's table . . . a point d'esprit cloth over ice blue satin . . . milk glass wedding dishes filled with mock orange and a single blue taper on either side of the tiered wedding cake, also decorated in blue . . .
