

They're Ready for Big Times in Sheridan

SHERIDAN—Men are growing beards and the women are wearing old-fashioned costumes here to publicize Phil Sheridan Days and rodeo June 20-22. One group, pictured above, included Mrs. Ted Richey and daughter, Carol; Cliff Bride, co-chairman of the event and Sheridan postmaster, Mrs. Robert Hughey and Mrs. O. M. Peterson. Prizes for the best costumes and beards will be awarded during the annual celebration.

Valley Obituaries

Mrs. Eva Brewer
SWEET HOME — Mrs. Eva Brewer, 56, resident of Sweet Home for the past nine years, died Sunday shortly after being taken to the Langmack hospital.

She was born May 15, 1896, at Hayden, Ky., and came to Oregon with her family 12 years ago. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Sweet Home.

Surviving are her husband, Tom Brewer, Sweet Home; four children, Tom Brewer Jr., and Mrs. Jessie Poe, both of Sweet Home, and Holley Brewer and Mrs. Francis Boggs, both of Kentucky.

The body has been taken to London, Ky., for interment.

Mrs. Fern Roberta Johnston
DALLAS — Mrs. Fern Roberta Johnston, late resident of Dallas, died in a Sandy rest home Thursday after a lingering illness. She was 52.

Arrangements are being made by the family with Bollman Funeral Chapel for funeral services at 2 p.m. Monday, followed by interment in Dallas Cemetery.

Mrs. Johnston was a native of Delano, Minn. She had come to Oregon with her family, the late Joseph Coopers, in the 1920's. She was married in Dallas soon after to Jess E. Johnston, who survives.

Also surviving are daughters, Mrs. Rosamond Denter, Sandy, and Mrs. Lewis Carey, Dallas; sons, Leonard Johnston, Sandy, and Cecil Johnston, Springfield; nine grandchildren; brother, Milton Cooper, Dallas; five sisters, Mrs. Mary Picknub, Cloquet, Minn.; Mrs. Lucille Wilcox, Salem; Mrs. Ruby Rowell, Dallas; Mrs. H. A. Knutson, Fort Era, Canada, and Mrs. Ralph McFarland, Grandby, Mo.

Mrs. Johnston was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Dallas.

Mrs. Sarah J. Taylor
MILL CITY — Mrs. Sarah J. Taylor, 91, late resident of Portland and former Mill City homesteader for 50 years, died Wednesday in a Portland sanitarium where she had been bedfast since 1943.

As Sarah Kowitz, a native of Iowa, she came to Oregon in 1879, married Andrew J. Taylor Sept. 24, 1882, and lived on their homestead north of Mill City for more than 50 years. She moved to Portland in 1923, two years after her husband died.

Two sons surviving are Irven E. Taylor, Woodlake, Calif., and Frank A. Taylor, Salem. Seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren also survive.

The funeral will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday (standard time) at Weddie Funeral Home, Stayton, followed by burial near Mill City at Fairview Cemetery.

Elva Wallace
STAYTON — Mrs. Elva Wallace, 38, died in Albany Tuesday and funeral services will be held at the Weddie Chapel here at 1:30 p.m. (Standard Time) Saturday, June 14. Burial will be at Lone Oaks Cemetery. The Rev. Kenneth Abbott will officiate.

Mrs. Wallace was a native of Castle Rock, Wash. (March 22, 1914).

Survivors include the husband, Raymond, Albany; parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Roberts, Willamette; daughter, Mrs. Arlene Jordan, Albany; son, Allen Wallace, Reedsport; seven sisters, Alma Hopkins of Dillard, Lulu Withon
