Auto Mishaps Injure Five In Salem Area

Three separate accidents Thursday brought injuries to five persons, with a sixth narrowly avoiding being hurt when his car was struck by a train at 14th and Mission streets.

Four of the five were injured in a two-car collision at 21st and Lee streets about 6 p.m.

Taken to Salem General Hospital were Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Bertram and their 13-year-old son, James, all of Lebanon, and Mrs. Thomas Lay of 1401 McArthur St., Salem, all of whom were occupants of one car, driven by Mrs. Lay's husband, who was not hurt.

City ambulance crewmen said a possible fractured back was sustained by Mrs. Lay. Serious lacerations about the face and possible jaw injury was sustained by Bertram, and possible fractured ribs by his son.

In a second accident Thursday, Robert Earl Scott, 25, of Portland sustained a possible fractured leg when his car overturned just north of Hubbard. State police said Scott's car overturned after the brakes locked.

In a third accident Thursday, a 16-year-old Robert Glen Savage of 410 W. Rural St. escaped injury Thursday morning when his car was brushed by a Southern Pacific passenger train at 14th and Mission streets.

Lyons Airman Given Credit In Jet Record

ERNEST E. PODRABSKY

LYONS — A Lyons airman, Ernest E. Podrabsky, is making a name for himself in the 8th Fighter-Bomber Wing in Korea.

The airship, named "Spirit of Oregon," has flown 208 sorties without a single malfunction and the 19-year-old Podrabsky is given credit for the performance.

Podrabsky was told by an aeronautical engineer his ship would never get off the ground with four 1,000-pound bombs attached, but fly she did, along with others as heavily loaded with bombs.

Podrabsky is a Mill City High School graduate who enlisted in the Air Force from Salem in January, 1951.

His "Spirit of Oregon" has flown more than 1,000 combat hours.

Theft of Coins Charged to Toledo Man

The arrest of a man in connection with the theft of $92 in nickels and dimes from a State Street restaurant was made by city police detectives Thursday ten minutes after they were called.

Clifford E. Moore of Toledo, Ore., was charged with grand larceny and held in the city jail in lieu of bail.

The money was taken sometime between 9 and 10 a.m. Thursday morning from the restaurant at 475 State St. Carl Pylett, manager told police. It was in a sack beneath the cash register, he said.

Police were called at 3:45 p.m. Shortly after their arrival Pylett identified Moore, who was sitting in the restaurant that morning about the time the money was taken.

Detectives followed Moore to the hotel and after receiving his permission, searched his room. The money was found in a dresser drawer.
