

Nuptials Held At Church

Miss Patsy Kuhn and Wayne Wolverson exchanged their marriage vows at a quiet ceremony on June 3 at the First Church of the Nazarene before members of the immediate family.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kuhn and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wolverson, all of Salem. The Rev. Eugene Stowe officiated at the 8 o'clock nuptials before a setting of pink and white gladioluses.

For her wedding the bride chose a white linen suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible topped with pink and white flowers.

Mrs. Leo Wahl was her sister's matron of honor and wore a pink linen suit and carried a nosegay of pink and white flowers. Robert True stood with the groom as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kuhn wore a blue and black print afternoon dress and the groom's mother wore a green suit.

A reception followed the nuptials at the home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip along the Washington and Oregon coast the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 1065 Madison Street.

Air Gun Blamed For Eye Loss; Seek $40,000

A $40,000 damage suit for the loss of a Stayton boy's eye, allegedly as the result of being struck by an air rifle pellet, was filed Thursday in Marion County Circuit Court.

R. R. Ricks Jr. filed the suit on behalf of his son, Roger, against Kenneth and Ila M. Hansen of Stayton, claiming that Hansen's son, Chuck, fired his gun and hit the Ricks boy last Jan. 15, causing loss of vision.

The complaint alleges that the Hansens were negligent in permitting their son to use the rifle and fire it within the city.

Many Charges Against Driver

City police Thursday arrested a Salem man on four separate traffic charges.

Held in city jail was Robert Gene Gilchrist of 2148 S. Cottage St. He is charged with reckless driving, failure to transfer motor vehicle license, failure to display license plates and driving with defective brakes. He was arrested on South High Street near Bush Pasture Park.

No bail had been set Thursday night.

Teamsters, Hudson House Settle Dispute

PORTLAND (AP)—AFL Teamsters in Portland, Salem and The Dalles have been granted pay increases in negotiations with Hudson House, wholesale grocery firm.

The agreement, negotiated by the Oregon Cannery Council, calls for a 3 cent hourly base pay boost with increases of 4 and 5 cents an hour in some classifications.

It also provides for two weeks vacation after three years, two more paid holidays, shift differentials of 5 and 10 cents and union dues checkoff. Some 800 workers are affected.

E. S. Benjamin, Salem, council president, said Thursday the agreement is expected to set the pattern for future negotiations.

Latvians Note Rout by Russ

The 11th anniversary of the exodus of thousands of Baltic citizens into Russian prison camps will be observed today by the Oregon Latvian Society.

It was on the night of June 13-14, "the saddest day in our history," when 56,000 men, women and children in Estonia, Lithuania and Latvia and other Baltic nations were routed out of their homes by Soviet soldiers and shipped off to work camps.

In order to "warn Americans against the treachery of Russia," Juris Krigenis of Salem, president of the Latvian Society, presented Gov. Douglas McKay Thursday with a book containing names of 18,000 Latvians deported to Russia in 1940-41.

Krigenis, who is a chemist at the Ray-O-Vac Chemical plant here, said that about 400 displaced

Return of Standard Time Petitions Asked

H. G. Stevens of Roberts said Thursday that farmers' organizations throughout the state are now urging circulators to return the petitions they have been filling with signatures endorsing the move for legislation to make standard time prevail in Oregon. He said 6,000 petitions are in circulation but only 500 have been returned to the farm groups for filing with the secretary of state.

Latvians live in Oregon including about 52 in Salem. Part of his visit to Governor McKay Thursday was to thank the governor for the assistance given by Oregon residents to displaced persons here.

South Salem Lions Install D. Randolph

South Salem Lions Club installed David Randolph as new president during a luncheon meeting Wednesday noon at the Legion Clubhouse. Harry Scott, charter member of Salem Lions Club and state Lions secretary, conducted the installation.

Other new officers are Charles C. Nielson, Charles Sweetris and Louis Neuman, vice presidents; Nels T. Johnson, secretary; F. H. Weir, treasurer; Daryl Jones, Lion tamer; Edwin Maerz, tail twister; Arthur Martin and Ray Morrow, directors. Holdover directors are Clayton Jones and Frank Hamstreet.

ICE MAKER
CHICAGO (INS)—A new ice-making machine, designed especially for small users, will produce up to 200 pounds of cubes or crushed ice a day. It was displayed by the Carrier Corp. of Syracuse, N. Y., at the Restaurant Convention and Exposition in Chicago. The company said the machine is the only one of its size with a built-in ice crusher.

TRIPPED UP
WOODLAND, Cal. (INS)—Mrs. Daniel Henon of Woodland had wanted a trip to Hawaii for years. Finally she and her husband had their Hawaii vacation. But when they got home—there was a letter from Mr. Henon's employer. It told him he had won a sales promotion contest—and a big prize. The prize was a free trip to Hawaii.
