Dance Students Offer Revue

Three hundred dancing students of all ages will perform in the annual Stairway of the Stars revue by the Paul Armstrong Studio Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock in the Capitol Theater, along with a film program. Armstrong's own dancing daughters will be in the show. Shown above, they are (from left) Janne Gay, 4; Joanne May, 2, and Jeanne Kay, 3.

Hopewell Pastor Returns Home From Midwest

Statesman News Service
HOPEWELL—The Rev. H. E. Hopewell, pastor of the Hopewell Evangelical United Brethren Church, occupied his pulpit Sunday after returning from his son's wedding in Kansas. The family visited friends in Montana and Washington where he formerly was pastor.

The Hopewell Church voted to hold its services for the rest of the summer on Daylight Saving Time. Prayer meeting will be held at the parsonage Thursday at 7:30 (DST).

Tuesday afternoon, the Silver Tea of the Hopewell Missionary Society was held on the lawn of the Hopewell E. U. B. Church. Mrs. Ross Rogers, president, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Andrew Wakeman of McMinnville talked on missionary work in Africa and Mrs. W. J. Jones of Dayton held of her trip to South America.

A bridal shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schuhardt (Ila Taskinen), with Youth Fellowship as hosts. Schuhardt is in the Air Corps and reported for overseas duty in the Far East.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Janzen received word of the death of Mrs. Janzen's father, Peter Peters of Chinook, Montana, June 11. They left Thursday to attend the funeral. Dean Brown and Anna Mae Wright are the Hopewell 4-H representatives at the Oregon State College Summer School for 4-H Club members.

William Pearce left Thursday for Stockton, Calif., where he will be a fruit and vegetable canning inspector.

Average attendance at the Daily Vacation Bible School at the Western Mennonite School has been 52. Closing exercises will be Friday evening, June 20.

Oak Grove Gardeners Have Rose Show; Picnic Set for July 8

Statesman News Service
OAK GROVE—The Oak Grove gardeners met at the Grange Hall for the annual spring flower show.

The exhibits were many and colored slides were shown of English, Italian, French and British gardens, taken by Col. C. Robertson.

The club's next activity will be a picnic dinner, July 8, at the Maud Williamson park, near Wheatland on Salem-Dallas highway.

well School District board of directors at the annual meeting Monday night.

He succeeds N. O. Pearce who filled a vacancy since February and was not a candidate for election.

Mrs. Harold Owen was re-elected clerk of the board.
