

Brown-Downing Nuptials Held

LYONS — Baskets of Esther Reed daisies, white stock and delphinium were used to decorate the church for the marriage of Miss Juanita Elizabeth Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing of Lyons, and Ricard Loughton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Brown of Santa Ana, California.

The young couple exchanged their vows at the Community Methodist church at a 2 o'clock ceremony with the Rev. Rinke Feenstra officiating. Soloists were Mrs. Donald Sheytinge of Mill City, accompanied by Mrs. Delos Hoeye, Silverton.

The bride wore a white slipper satin gown with beaded neckline and train. Her fingertip veil was edged in lace with beaded crown, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Carleton, Lyons, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of yellow net with lace jacket, and carried a bouquet of white Esther Reed daisies. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Duane Downing of Portland, wearing a gown of lime green taffeta, and Mrs. William Royce of Medford, wearing a gown of pink taffeta. Both carried matching bouquets of white Esther Reed daisies. Twila Bailey, Salem, was flower girl.

Wallace Koster, Kelso, Washington, stood with Mr. Brown as best man and seating the guests were Duane and Downing, Portland, and Robert Carleton of Lyons.

Mrs. Downing chose a teal blue gown dress with white accessories for the wedding and Mrs. Brown wore a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

The newlyweds greeted their
