Miss Joyce Leachman A Bride

The First Congregational Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Joyce Annie Leachman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leachman of Langford, B. C., and Eric Charles Schuberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Schuberg of Salem, on Saturday, June 28. Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiated at the rites before a setting of white gladioluses, yellow iris and blue delphinium. William Bush was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist. The bridal gown was of French marquisette and Chantilly lace, fashioned with a train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion with lace edge cascaded from a Juliet cap of lace and satin trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. Mrs. Lloyd Swanson was the honor matron and Miss Marjorie Caven was the bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of blue marquisette and lace with matching mitts and Juliet caps. They carried bouquets of Esther Reed daisies. Raymond Schuberg was his brother's best man and Clarence Weber was the groomsman. Ushers were Virgil Mahaffy and Lloyd Swanson. A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Leachman wore a dusty rose crepe gown with navy blue accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Schuberg chose a lavender crepe gown with white accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations. For traveling the bride donned a grey suit with navy accessories. After July 15 the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 1972 N. Church St. Coming from out-of-town for the nuptials were the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. E. Long and Sheina and Mrs. Caroline O'Neill, all of Victoria, B. C.

Summer Sport Classes to Be Offered

The YWCA summer session of classes will begin next week with the focus on sports. Instruction will be offered in tennis, archery, and swimming. Lestie Sparks, physical education director and tennis coach at Willamette University, will be the instructor for the tennis class. Instruction will begin Tuesday, July 8, at 6:30 p.m. on the Willamette University courts. Mr. Sparks will teach the fundamentals of tennis playing as well as give individual help during the six week course. At the same time on Tuesday evening, archery instruction will be offered on the Willamette University field under the guidance of Miss Nancy Doughton. Bows and arrows will be furnished. The tennis and archery classes are open to all women and girls. Any junior or senior high school girl, business girl, or housewife is eligible to enroll. For potential mermaids there will be swimming classes held Saturday mornings beginning July 12 at 9 o'clock at the Leslie pool. The group will be taught by Miss Marie Corner, a city recreation worker. The 8 lesson class is especially designed for the housewife or business girl, who would like to learn how to swim or to swim better. Registrations are now being taken at the YWCA office for all classes. Those interested should sign up early as the enrollment is limited. A small fee is charged for all classes.
