

Summertime Visitors...

Four sisters are visiting in Salem for the first time in eight years. On the terrace at the James Humphrey home are left to right, Mrs. Myron H. Souper of Galesburg, Ill., Mrs. Thomas G. Harvey of Indianapolis, Mrs. Charles Clarke and Mrs. Humphrey. The visitors, who will be here most of the summer, are dividing their time between the Clarke and Humphrey homes and with their mother, Mrs. John W. Scott. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Mrs. Theodore Huntley Welch and children, Ted and Maribeth, above, who have been visiting in the capital the past month from their home in Oil City, Pa. They have been the guests of Mrs. Welch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Boylan. Mr. Welch came west with his family, which was their first visit here in six years. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Home from Japan are Mrs. Thomas Ewing and children, Zan, Christina and Tommy, at the right, who returned a fortnight ago with Lieutenant Colonel Ewing, who was in the Far East for three years. His family was there for two and a half years. While in Salem they are making their headquarters at the home of Mrs. Ewing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Esson at Brooks. After September 1 the army colonel will be stationed at Camp Cook, Calif. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

The Party Whirl...

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society
Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers will be hosts for a dinner party Monday night at their South Church Street residence for the pleasure of a group of friends. The honor guests will be Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Mitchell of Cincinnati, Ohio, who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones. Bridge will be in play after the dinner hour.

A Bridal Shower

For Wednesday afternoon is the one o'clock luncheon and bridal shower for which Mrs. Frank H. Spears and Mrs. T. W. Creech will be hostesses at the former's Chemeketa Street home in compliment to Miss Sarah Jane Backstrand, popular bride-elect of Blair McCabe.

Women's Section

Society + Clubs + Music

Visiting in the capital from her home in Camden, South Carolina is Mrs. John G. Richards IV, at the left, who is pictured with her sister, Mrs. Conrad Paulsen, and her mother, Mrs. Thomas Watson, who moved this past year to Salem from Portland. Mrs. Richards expects to be in Salem at the Paulsen home for a month. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

A bride of Saturday afternoon in Portland at St. Michaels and All Angels' Church was Mrs. William Winfred Poorman, the former Margaret Joan Elliott. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Elliott of Portland, formerly of Salem, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Poorman of Salem. (Edris Morrison Studio). Story on inside page.