OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Two half-brothers, DeVon Worsley of Clearfield, Utah, and Jay LaVerl Worsley of Salt Lake City, met for the first time recently.

The two men when Jay noticed he was working with a fellow who had the same last name as his, "Imagine how excited we were when we got to comparing notes and discovered we were half-brothers," Jay said. "Neither of us had any other brothers or sisters."

Jay served a four-year hitch in the airborne infantry during World War II. DeVon returned from Korea and Japan recently after four years with the paratroopers. The father, John Harold Worsley, a World War I disabled veteran, has spent the last 15 years in the Colorado veterans hospital.

Dutch early settlers in what is now the United States called the Delaware the South River to distinguish it from the Hudson which they called the North River and the changeover of the Hudson is still called the North River.
