Well-Dressed Gunmen Rob Oakland Bank

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Two well-dressed gunmen held up a branch of the American Trust Co. here Tuesday afternoon and escaped with about $23,500, police reported.

One bandit cleaned out eight tellers' cages and also took money from an open vault, stuffing it into a leather zipper bag, while the other held 13 employees and about 20 customers at pistol point.

The bandits escaped in a stolen car, which was found abandoned less than half an hour later 10 blocks away.

FBI agents released the estimate of the loot.

The bandits, described as "rather young," entered the bank shortly before 2 p.m. One waved customers and employees away from the counter with a .38 revolver.

The other, a pistol in his hand, leaped the counter and rapidly dumped cash into the satchel.

Farmers Forced To Get Inoculant At Seed Dealers

A number of farmers regretted to learn this week that the Oregon State College bacteriology department will no longer sell legume inoculating bacteria. This farm service, provided by OSC for nearly 40 years, has been very welcome to many.

Increasing costs and financial losses over the past two years, combined with lack of space, has forced the discontinuance, Dr. W. B. Bollen, college bacteriologist reported Wednesday.

Although the basic inoculating service will not be provided, the college will cooperate in preparing inoculants for unusual legumes which require special strains of bacteria not available elsewhere, Dr. Bollen explained.

BONE SAW STOLEN

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A recent robbery at Jackson Hospital left the police as much puzzled by "Why?" as by "Who?" The loot was a $400 electrical bone saw taken from an operating room.
