

Bowdens are Honored on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bowden celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a family gathering on July 26 at their home on Bowden Lane in Keizer. The occasion also was a reunion of the couple's six children for the first time in 25 years.

During the evening a wedding cake was cut by the goldenweds. On Sunday a picnic dinner for the entire family and children was held at the Bowden home.

The six children present for the celebration were Mrs. A. R. Cutter (Doris), Arcadia, Calif., Mrs. George Bates (Ivy), Pinehurst, Wash., Mrs. Stanley Pieser (Violet), Klamath Falls, Gordon, John and Thomas Bowden, all of Salem. There are 14 grandchildren.

The couple's marriage took place in Cornwall, England, and they came to the states two years later. After their arrival they came directly to Salem, where they have resided ever since. Mr. Bowden still operates his fruit ranch at Keizer.

William Bennett of Portland, brother of Mrs. Bowden, was here for the celebration and a grandson, George Bates, flew from Everett, Wash., Mrs. Verlie Newman of Leucadia, Calif., and Mrs. Dovie Bates of Salem were additional guests at the golden wedding.

Hostesses Fete Carol Goodrich

Miss Carol Goodrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Goodrich, of Portland, who will become the bride of Jerry W. Bachle of Salem, was the guest of honor at a shower on Friday evening when Mrs. L. R. Hamlin and her sister, Mrs. Fay Ebeling of McMinnville, entertained at the home of the former. They were assisted by Mrs. Hamlin's daughter, Roberta.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of gold balls and rings flanked by white gladioluses.

The wedding will take place at the Grant Park Baptist Church in Portland on August 14.

Bidden to honor Miss Goodrich were Mesdames Harry Bachle, Daryl Sim, Deane Whittlock, Lakin Westphal, Jack Bowen, Thomas, Chris Sumpter, William Hall, Walter Claus, Charles Emerson, Jerry Taylor, Bruce Hamilton, Claud Tharp, Ivan Roysse and the hostesses.

Kansas Visitor Guest of Group

Marion Auxiliary, VFW met Monday evening for a social meeting. Announcement was made of a rummage sale to be held on October 1.

Mrs. Marvin McKinnis, president of VFW Auxiliary District 7, Lyons, Kansas, was a visitor. Following the meeting Eugene McIntire and George Tooke spoke on "Operation Skywatch" and urged for volunteers to assist them. Anyone wishing to help is urged to contact either of these men or civil defense chairman, Mrs. Sherman Beall.

Entertainment followed the meeting with Mrs. Dale Brooks in charge. Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Henry Fournier.

Oregon residents from Wyoming gathered for a picnic and annual get-together on Sunday at Avery Park in Corvallis. A large group attended with much reminiscing among friends and comparison of the two states.

Joyce Roble will Wed in August

SILVERTON—The wedding of Miss Joyce Roble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roble of Silverton, to Alvin Lee Glass, son of Lee Morton of Lixmore, West Virginia, is being planned for the afternoon of August 9 at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Silverton. Mr. Morton is now stationed at Air Force Base, San Marcos, Tex.

Miss Roble was graduated from the Tillamook Catholic High School and has completed a year's training at Providence Hospital School of Nursing in Portland.

On Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. How does one go about giving a breakfast party?

A. Invitations may be phoned, or informal notes sent. Breakfast may be served any time in the morning up to noon. No special entertainment need be provided, as breakfasts are usually planned for a special purpose, such as after a very late dance or early wedding, before a tennis match, or to get a morning committee off to a good start. A regular breakfast menu is served.

Q. Is it considered proper to use bread as a "pusher" in getting bits of food from the plate onto the fork?

A. If absolutely necessary, this is considered all right. Just use small pieces of bread, though—not a whole slice.

Q. Is it required that the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom be invited to all showers in her honor?

A. This is not necessary. If, however, one of the mothers is invited, the other also should be included.
