Rites Today For Mrs. Berry At Mill City

MILL CITY — Final rites for Mrs. Louisa Berry, 82, will be held at 12:30 p.m. Thursday at Mill City Assembly of God Church. Interment will be at Fox Valley Cemetery.

Mrs. Berry died Sunday at a Salem Hospital. The Fortmiller-Frederickson Mortuary of Albany is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Berry was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wese, Valley pioneers. She was born in Kansas, June 15, 1870, coming to Oregon at the age of three. She had spent most of her life in Mill City.

She was married in 1890 to Joshua Ballard. Following his death she married Reuben C. Adkins. He died in 1928 and in 1931 she married John Berry, who survives.

Surviving also are four children, Charles and Louis Ballard, both of Portland, Mrs. A. J. Olson, Crescent City, Calif., and Mrs. Josephine Counts, Port Orford; a sister, Mrs. Phoebe Dow, Albany; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Detroit Man Gets District Ranger Post

DETROIT — Fritz M. Morrison has received a promotion to the position of district ranger, according to R. Bruckart, supervisor of the Willamette National Forest.

Morrison, who for the past year has been timber management assistant on the Detroit ranger district, will be transferred to the Packwood ranger station on the Gifford Pinchot National Forest where he will assume his duties as district ranger about Aug. 12.

Morrison graduated from Oregon State College in 1941 with a Bachelor of Science degree in forestry. He was seasonably employed on the Siskiyou forest from 1937 to 1941 when he received a permanent appointment, serving successively on the Rogue River, Siskiyou and Willamette forests.

He is married and has two children. Successor to Morrison at Detroit will be Starr Reed, 1949 graduate of Oregon State College, who has served on the Ochoco and Willamette forests. At present he is on the Cascadia district. Reed has a wife and three children.

RAMSEYS ON TRIP

DETROIT — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ramsey and children are taking a two-weeks vacation trip, during which they will visit Salt Lake City, Yellowstone National Park and Glacier National Park.

Detroit Crew Battles Fires At Cascadia

DETROIT — Several lightning fires resulted from thunder storms in the Cascades Sunday, four having been reported on the Cascadia district and others at Rigdon, southeast of Eugene.

A 14-man suppression crew from the Detroit district was dispatched to Cascadia to assist in controlling the fires, while two other Detroit personnel, C. C. Mason and Douglas Baker, went to the Rigdon district to aid in fire fighting.

Only one strike was reported on the Detroit district and no fires have been reported since the storm.
