Carol Kannier Reveals Troth At Party

At the party for which Miss Carol Kannier was hostess Wednesday night in compliment to Miss Beverly Graber, bride-elect of Leon Short, she surprised her guests with the announcement of her betrothal to Virgil Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Weber.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kannier Sr. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Miss Kannier is a graduate of Salem High School and her fiancé is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy. The bride-to-be is now employed at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. and Mr. Weber is with the Southern Pacific Co.

A dessert supper was served and the names of the engaged duo were on the ices and napkins, revealing the news to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall, Cathy and Terry, and Mr. and Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Shannon and Clay, are leaving today for Long Beach, Wash., to go clam digging.

Salem Women to Attend Meeting

The Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers will hold a board of managers meeting in Portland on August 7 and 8 according to Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, the state president. Among those attending will be Mrs. James Bunnell, state legislative chairman, Mrs. L. S. Shuford, Marion County Council president, both of Salem, and Mrs. C. A. Fratzke, state juvenile protection chairman, and Mrs. Roland Dusan, Polk County Council president, both of Independence.

This board, a state-wide group of elected officers and committee chairmen, meets three times a year, according to Mrs. Moorhead, who is beginning the last year of her 3-year term as state president.

On the agenda will be the laying of plans for a year's program to be carried out through the 578 local associations within the state organization, and a general discussion of the schools of instruction to be conducted later.

West Salem Grange Home Economics Club will meet Friday instead of the regular date, at the home of Mrs. Carlton Brown, 957 Arthur Way, 1 p.m. dessert luncheon.

Miss Reischke Honor Guest

Miss Sylvia Reischke, who will be married to Clemence Auch on August 23, was honored at a pre-nuptial party Tuesday night when the Misses Marian, Ruth and Caroline Giese, Miss Ruth Rae and Mrs. Milo Kuhn entertained at the Giese home.

A miscellaneous shower feted the guest of honor and a late supper was served by the hostesses. As the engaged duo plan to enter the mission field next year, the decorations featured the mission theme. The hostesses were dressed as natives.

Honoring Miss Reischke were Mrs. Leo Reischke, Mrs. Tom Harmon, Mrs. Arnold Kuper, Mrs. Henry Sunderland, Mrs. Richard Claffin, Mrs. Roy Rocks, Mrs. Clifford Jungkeit, Lebanon, Mrs. Paul Small, Mrs. Cecil Stark, Mrs. Carl May, Dallas, Mrs. Rudolph Woyke, Mrs. W. C. Heringer, Mrs. Iva Reischke, Mrs. Alvin Schwengel, Mrs. Erma Reischke, Miss Maudie Jane Reischke, Mrs. Dorothy Caspar, Miss Jeannette Saucy, Miss Lillian Reischke, Miss Dolores Kuper, Miss Carmen Roth, and Miss Waltraut Fuchs.

Mrs. Huff Winner Oak Knoll Trophy

Mrs. Donald Huff was awarded the annual Oak Knoll trophy as winner of the tournament at the regular ladies day play at the Oak Knoll Golf Club on Wednesday.

A string tourney was a feature of the day's play Wednesday and winners were Mrs. L. J. Plant, class A; Mrs. R. L. McFarland, class B; and Mrs. Fred Ruitter, class C.

The Oak Knoll women golfers were represented at the hole-in-one contest at Waters Park Wednesday night by Mrs. Plank and Mrs. Huff.

Home Nuptials Unite Couple Saturday

The South Cottage Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis H. Jones was the scene of the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Barbara L. Jones, and Marshall A. Jacobs, son of Mrs. Harold O. Swenby, on Saturday morning, August 2.

Only members of the immediate family witnessed the exchange of vows. Dr. Brooks Moore officiated at the 11 o'clock rites. The improvised altar was banked with pink and white gladioluses.

For her wedding the bride chose a pink silk shantung costume suit with white accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.

The couple was unattended. A reception followed the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip along the Oregon coast the newlyweds will be at home in Salem.

Visitor Leaves for South

Miss Deanna Winslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paris Winslow of San Diego, Calif., is in Salem visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Wikje Winslow. They spent last weekend with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Adam Nickles, and family in Eugene. While there they went on a fishing trip up the McKenzie River and celebrated the birthday of Billy Nickles. Mrs. Winslow and Deanna spent this weekend with Miss Renske Donker and the Donker Brothers at their farm in Aumsville. She left Tuesday morning for Eugene and from there will continue on to San Diego.

Many Compete in Bridge Tourney

With 31 teams from Brownsville to Portland competing, the August master point tournament of the Salem Elks Duplicate Bridge Club was the largest yet held here. Top honors went to Mrs. Clyde Mount of Oregon City and Mrs. Stuart Thebe, Mrs. Harold Edwards of Portland and Ellis H. Jones. Mrs. Harry Wiedmar and Mrs. Arthur S. Binegar, and Mrs. Mary Roberts and C. C. Van Vleet, both of Portland. Taking seconds were Mrs. George D. Henderson and Mrs. C. C. Gabriel and the following Portlanders: Mrs. Stuart Wilson and Mrs. Lulu B. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright, and Mrs. Clara Shaw and Mrs. Ethel Johnson.

First places in the junior monthly playoff were won by Mrs. Sam Ramp and Ray Kemp, and Mrs. Donald Duncan and Mrs. Lloyd Jones, while seconds went to Mrs. Robert Burns and Mrs. F. C. Lutz, and Mrs. Bert Osburn and Mrs. Frank Mohlman. The junior weekly play resulted in Mrs. E. E. Borland and C. L. Newsom and Mrs. R. H. Tokerud and Mrs. L. P. Gottfried winning, while second went to Mrs. Sam Ramp and Mrs. Bert Osburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reddick.

In the senior tournament winners were William F. Leary and Mrs. Edward E. Roth, and Mrs. Leona Taylor and Ray Ward. Seconds were taken by Mrs. Paul F. Burris and John Pugh of Sheed, and Mrs. Everett Day and Ralph S. Dannen of Brownsville.
