

Eight Western States to Test Civil Defense

OLYMPIA (AP)—The military and civil defense forces of eight western states will band together Aug. 15 for a joint 40-hour civil defense exercise.

A joint announcement from the participating agencies said thirteen mock incidents of enemy action or sabotage are planned as exercises for the Washington State Civil Defense Organization. However, no state-wide alert will be sounded, State Civil Defense Director D. E. Barbey said. Air raid warnings sent out during the course of the operation will be in the form of messages from the state control center to the local civil defense directors concerned.

The 6th Army, Western Sea Frontier of the Navy, Western Air Defense Force and three 4th Air Force, Western Area Coast Guard, Western Army Anti-Aircraft Command, Marine Corps units and the state and federal civil defense organizations will take part in the eight state exercise, Barbey said. An umpire group of armed forces and civil defense representatives will oversee the widespread exercise from San Francisco.

Civil Defense groups participating will include those of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, California, Arizona, Utah and Nevada.

Reds Sentence Berlin Student To Execution

BERLIN (AP)—An East German court Saturday sentenced a West Berlin student of chemistry to die for conspiring to commit sabotage for the West.

Three others, including a woman, were given long prison terms ranging to life. All were accused of being agents of the "Fighting Groups Against Inhumanity," a West German anti-Communist underground organization.

The death sentence was pronounced on Wolfgang Kaiser, 28. The prosecution charged he used his knowledge of chemistry to make "sabotage weapons" for use in a plan to blow up canal locks and to set fire to a highway bridge.

Joachim Mueller was given a life term, his wife, Ursula, got 10 years, and Kurt Hoppe 15 years.

Calumet Entry Wins Feature

CHICAGO (AP)—Calumet Farm's surprising Mark-Ye-Well Saturday won the $148,000 American Derby at Washington Park almost as easily as he captured the equally rich Arlington Classic at Arlington Park three weeks ago.

The Calumet three-year-old piloted as usual by Jockey Eddie Arcaro defeated Sub Fleet, second in the 1952 Kentucky Derby, by two lengths with Maracador Third, 11 lengths back of SubFleet, and Blue Dare fourth.

Layne-Charles Rematch Nixed

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—Rex Layne's manager, Mary Jensen, said Saturday a re-match with Ezzard Charles definitely was out.

Layne was awarded a decision over the former heavyweight champion Friday night by Jack Dempsey, referee and sole judge. The Charles camp protested violently and called it "a black eye for boxing."

"We'd like to meet the winner of the coming Rocky Marciano-Jersey Joe Walcott fight. There isn't any reason to test Charles again. We settled our account with him Friday night," Jensen said.

Transient Charged With Disorderly Conduct

Police arrested Louie Dezamitz, a transient worker from South Bend, Ind., Saturday morning, and charged him with disorderly conduct, reportedly for using profanity in the presence of neighbor children.

The man was arrested after residents in the 400 block on South Cottage Street had called police to report a strange man had been conversing with a 10-year-old neighbor girl.

Hoover Asks Engineers to Boost Output

PORTLAND (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover tonight called on engineers to aid the nation's economy by developing methods of boosting production and lowering costs.

Hoover, in a speech prepared for delivery at the Northwest Engineering Centennial here, said higher per capita productivity was the partial answer to spending, inflation and high taxes.

He said that after the Revolutionary, Civil and First World Wars, greater productivity had restored "the credit of our nation" and "the prosperity of our people moved into high levels."

A continuation of spending, taxing and inflation, he said, can have but one result—"a national socialistic state."

Hoover said both political parties agree "that the nation is mired down in a swamp of spending, inflation and taxes." But both "disagree on who-done-it."

The former president blamed "ill-considered taxation" for fostering monopolies in industry while "the opportunity for the individual to establish his independent and competitive business is greatly diminished."

This, he said, is because established industries can write off their losses against taxes, but the individual risking venture capital is unable to do so.

Eva Peron's Body Center of Procession

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—The body of Eva Peron was taken through the troop-lined streets to the national capitol Saturday in a solemn military and civilian procession unmatched in Argentina's history.

Military bands played funeral dirges as 45 white shrouded workers slowly pulled the carriage to the black draped capitol building from the Ministry of Labor building where it had lain in state since Mrs. Peron's death two weeks ago.

There the body of the nation's first lady will lie in state for the final day until Sunday, when it will be taken to the general headquarters building of the General Confederation of Labor for temporary burial, the climax of unprecedented national mourning.

Later it is to be embalmed for permanent public display in a multi-million dollar Eva Peron monument to be built from workers' donations in the heart of the city.

Jury Decides Karnes 'Guilty'

(Story also on page one) Albert William Karnes, who was convicted Saturday of the murder of an elderly Salem woman, had been arrested in The Dalles three days after the Salem murder. At that time he was apprehended for breaking into a private residence at Astoria and attacking a woman with a hammer.

He was sentenced to 15 years in prison for burglary in that case on June 18.

The convicted killer was a one-time roomer at the home of Mrs. Litchfield in 1950. He was on parole from the Washington State Reformatory, where he was sentenced for one year for burglary, when he returned to Salem and killed his former landlady.

Karnes' chances of escaping the state gas chamber seemed slim Saturday. His attorney, showing the strain of the grueling trial, said no appeal to a higher court was "planned at this time."

Judge Duncan had informed the jury it could return one of six verdicts: Guilty of first degree murder without recommendation, guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation of life imprisonment, guilty of second degree murder or of manslaughter, innocent of the murder charge, and innocent of the murder charge by reason of insanity.

The Duke and Duchess of Windsor are holidaying at Montecatini, a spa town near Florence. Sir Daniel said he would leave by automobile later Saturday night for Montecatini.

Told that the former king of England ate a big steak for lunch, Sir Daniel said, "Well, that's a good sign."

Bride of Three Months Fatally Stabs Husband

SEATTLE (AP)—A quarrel by a newlywed Seattle couple ended Saturday evening with the death of the husband and a confession by the bride of three months that she stabbed him during an argument.

The victim was Kent Rindahl, 31, a commercial photographer. He died enroute to the hospital from a single knife wound in the back, just below the left shoulder.

His wife, Elsie, 30, in a signed statement made to Seattle police said she had become ill after drinking some whiskey while attending the Gold Cup races at Lake Washington early in the day. She slept through the races on the lawn at the lake and in a friend's car, leading to a quarrel with Rindahl.

Distance Mark Smashed by Kansas Plane

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP)—Bob Faris, 31-year-old Wichita, Kan., pilot, flew 1,400 miles from Wichita to Montpelier Saturday in just half a minute under distance record to set a new non-stop distance record for very light planes.

Faris landed his tiny Mooney "Mite"—a Wichita-built one-seater powered by a 65-horsepower engine—at 5:22 p.m.

The previous very light airplane distance record was held by Albert Reblion of France, who covered 1,135 miles in his Minnicap type plane last August.

Faris, a navy pilot in World War II and now the operator of an aircraft parts supply house in Wichita, estimated his average speed for the hop at 116.6 miles an hour.

The 14-foot-long plane has a 28-foot wingspread. It weighed at take off 1,075 pounds, including pilot and gasoline.

The fuselage was decorated by a large Dwight Eisenhower banner "carried from one fine Republican state, Kansas, to another, Vermont," Faris explained.

The pilot figured he made the flight on something less than $10 worth of fuel. He said he used 39 gallons of gasoline and had nine left and also consumed a half pint of oil.

Cordon Praises Private Ownership Of Timber Lands

KLAMATH FALLS (AP)—Sen. Cordon (R-Ore) said here Saturday private timber ownership must be encouraged despite pressures for greater public acquisition.

Cordon spoke at the 10th anniversary celebration of the first western pine tree farm on land owned by the Weyerhaeuser Timber Co., 10 miles west of here.

"It is not in the public interest that all forest land be in public ownership," Cordon told the gathering of Northwest lumber leaders. "These tree farmers are doing something for themselves," Cordon said, "something intrinsically good for the country and it's being done without a dash to the public treasury for help."

Greeks Hurl More Shells At Border Isle DIKEA, Greece (AP)—Entrenched Greek soldiers threw a few more shots into Gamma islet on the nervous Greek-Bulgarian frontier Saturday in a continued attempt to clear Bulgarian occupants off the 300-yard-long island.

Greek fire from mortars, machine-guns and automatic weapons has been directed intermittently at the island for three days now.

Successive 48-hour and 24-hour ultimatums from the Greeks failed to clear the Bulgars out.

A Greek official announcement Thursday said the Bulgarians had withdrawn from Gamma after the Greeks had first opened fire.

Apparently some Bulgars stayed on Gamma or returned after leaving the island.
