California will be the new home of the Melvin Bedsaul family. Mrs. Bedsaul and sons, Chris and Mark, are pictured above in the garden of their Barnes Avenue home. They left this past week for San Pablo, Calif., where Mr. Bedsaul has accepted a position. While in Salem he was with the Valley Motor Co. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

An Au Revoir Luncheon . . .

Mrs. Charles Winkenwerder has invited guests to a one o'clock bridge luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at her home. The affair is being arranged in compliment to Mrs. Richard Spooner, who is leaving for Europe and Berlin to join her army captain husband, and Mrs. George Schroeder, who leaves the end of the week for Japan to join her army husband in Yokohama. Bidden to say au revoir to the young matrons and travelers are Mrs. Douglas Baker, Mrs. John W. Stortz, Mrs. Fred S. Anunsen Jr., Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Mrs. Walter J. Woodfield, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Miss Evelyn Johnson and Miss Jeanne Busick.

Flying to Japan on August 18 will be Mrs. George Schroeder and son, George Jr., where they will join Mr. Schroeder, who is stationed at Yokohama as a warrant officer in the Japanese logistical command. They will be met in Tokyo by Mr. Schroeder. The travelers are leaving Friday for San Francisco accompanied by her mother, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. Wayne Kuhl and daughter, Linda. The latter three will remain in the bay city a few days before returning north. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Leaving the first of August for Eugene to make their home were Mrs. Lawrence Moore and daughter, Mary Laura. Mr. Moore, who was manager of the Commercial Book Store here, has accepted a position with the Koka-Chapman Co. in Eugene. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).
