White-Rector Vows Reac' Sunday

The Calvary Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Annabell Rector, daughter of Mrs. Charles T. Rector, and Gordon Allen White, son of Mrs. Earl R. Viesko, on Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Omar Barth officiated at the 3 o'clock ceremony.

Baskets of pale pink and white gladioluses decorated the altar and the pews were tied with white gladioluses and satin bows. Taper lighters were Miss Nadine Gilman and Mrs. Harold Little. Soloist was Ronald Fawn accompanied by William Craven.

Given in marriage by her brother James Rector, the bride wore a white nylon marquisette over satin gown, fashioned with fitted bodice, with lace button trim and French lace mandarin collar and bertha. The full skirt was ballerina length bordered with a wide band of the French lace. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a satin crown embellished with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Ophelia roses and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Phil Heinonen was the honor attendant. She wore a white embroidered organza frock over pink taffeta with ballerina skirt and pink sash. She carried a crescent bouquet of deep pink gladioluses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ruth Dowd, Miss Doris Beals and Miss Ada Hudson. Their gowns were made identical to the honor attendant only over blue taffeta. They wore blue taffeta bandeaux with pink cala gladioluses in their hair. They carried crescent bouquets of light pink gladioluses. Flower girl was Catherine Heinonen, who wore a yellow ruffled nylon net dress over yellow taffeta.

Attend the Groom
 Best man was Wally Hillpot and seating the guests were Charles Isaak, Richard Isaak and Jack Kiekel.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rector chose a royal blue net afternoon dress with blue accessories and pink gloves. Mrs. Viesko wore an ice blue taffeta gown with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink roses and bouvardia at the waist.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Joyce Gorton and Mrs. Richard Bladorn poured. Mrs. Russell Hedge, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Assisting were Miss Reta Wassner, Mrs. Carroll Graber, Miss Lucille Edger and Mrs. Floyd White.

The couple left for California for their honeymoon. For traveling the bride wore a royal blue knit suit with beige hat and gloves. Colored shoes and purse. She pinned brown cymbidium orchids to her outfit. On their return they will make their home at 659 Jefferson Street, Corvallis.

Shower Given
 A miscellaneous bridal shower was given for Miss Peggy Hamilton at the home of Neva Woolery, 1665 Roosevelt, August 4. Those present were Miss Peggy Hamilton, Miss Ulyssa Dodge, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Beth Funk, Mrs. May Pickell, Mrs. Bertha Sheets, Mrs. Eunice Thompson, Mrs. Edna Haverland, Mrs. Mary Hansen, Mrs. Zella Hamm, Mrs. Joe Valech, Miss Rosellie Caswell, Arlene Haverland, Marilyn Hamilton, Loretta Steward, Darlene Pickell, Kathy Shank, Jane Lewis, Donna Thompson, Verna Hamm, and Mabel Talmadge.

Joan Keeker to Tour Europe
 Miss Joan Keeker, daughter of Mrs. Edna Keeker, 411 South 18th Street is leaving Tuesday for Omaha, Neb. where she will meet her grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Maht and a great aunt, Mrs. Pete Jurgens.

They are to leave New York on the USS America August 21 and will spend some time in Germany, where they have relatives. The older women, born there, have not been back in 60 years and will remain until winter.

Miss Keeker will tour in France and Switzerland and return home late in October. Miss Keeker is employed at the state forestry department.

Birthday Party Honors Visitor

Mrs. Otto Yunker was hostess Thursday afternoon, for a birthday party honoring Mrs. Edna Gilkey who is visiting in Salem from Corvallis. The afternoon was spent informally and Mrs. Yunker was assisted by Mrs. P. D. Baker and Mrs. F. L. Rose.

Guests were Mesdames Gilkey, C. E. Shadler, R. I. Kinney, M. O. Nichols, P. D. Baker, Elmer Idean, Arthur Cummings, Luther Melton, John Gardner, Sam Richards, A. Goldsby, Robert McClay, J. E. Whitehead, Roy Melson, Ben Clagget, William Earle, Joseph Bartruff, Fred Rose, Alta Hall, Ethel Hall, Mary Hall Moore and Ruth Rullison.

Miss Schaefer, Mr. deLapp Married

At a 3 o'clock ceremony on Sunday afternoon at the First Christian Church Miss Aloha Diane Schaefer, daughter of Emil A. Schaefer, became the bride of Wesley Floyd DeLapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd DeLapp.

The Rev. Dudley Strain performed the nuptials before a setting of white violet gladioluses and woodwardia fern. Lighting the candles were Miss Leona Todd and Miss Betty Ellett, who wore yellow taffeta frocks. Elton Benedict was the soloist and Mrs. Joe Crockett the organist.

Of white tulle was the bridal gown, fashioned with panels of imported Chantilly lace on the bodice and skirt extending down the back of the cathedral train. A crown of Chantilly lace adorned with seed pearls held in place her tulle veil. She carried a white satin Bible marked with orchids and Stephanotis.

Miss Geraldine Radcliff was the honor maid and wore an aqua tulle gown with off-shoulder neckline enhanced with Chantilly lace and pleated panels of the lace extending from the waistline to the hemline. She carried a bouquet of white gladioluses and yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Millard Bates and Miss Frances Todd, the bridesmaids, wore lilac tulle frocks made identical to the honor maid's. They carried bouquets of white gladioluses with ivy.

Nancy Stone was flower girl and Orland DeLapp the ring bearer.

Brother is Best Man
 Lawrence DeLapp stood with the groom as best man and groomsmen were Robert Perlich and James DeLapp. Ushers were Glen Lutinbeal, Jack Utterback, R. V. Hitchcock and Gerrie Bullock.

Mrs. DeLapp attended her son's marriage in a mauve dress with navy blue accessories and orchid corsage.

A reception followed in the fireplace room. Pouring were Mrs. Everett Andresen and Mrs. Nourse Radcliff. Cutting the cake was John Rautenkranz. Assisting were Mrs. Chris Kowitz Jr., Miss Ethylene DeLapp, Miss Kay Lovell, Miss Jodelle Parker, Miss Jean duBuy, Miss Patricia Todd, Miss Betty Andresen, Miss Patricia Keppinger and Miss Beverly Roberts.

The newlyweds left for a California honeymoon and for traveling the bride donned a navy blue faille suit with white accessories. After September 1 the couple will be at home in Salem at 965 D Street.

Many Attend Portland Wedding

A large number of Salem people were in Portland on Sunday afternoon for the marriage of Miss George Ann Oberteuffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Herman Oberteuffer, Oswego, and David Ernest Crockett, son of Mrs. Theresa C. Crockett, Salem.

The 4 o'clock nuptials took place at the First Presbyterian Church with Dr. Morgan S. Odell, president of Lewis and Clark College, officiating. Miss Nancy Trigg, Lebanon, was the soloist and the organist was Raleigh McVickers. The altar was banked with large sprays of white gladioluses and larkspur with a touch of asters in shades of lavender, lilac and mulberry. The pews were marked with clusters of white gladioluses, baby breath and satin bows.

For her wedding the bride selected an exquisite bouffant nylon tulle gown over white satin fashioned with a court train. The tucked bodice was enhanced with embroidery and the long sleeves were finished with a deep ruffle of the tulle. A knife pleated panel extended down the front of the gown with the embroidery repeated on either side. A close fitting lace cap adorned with orange blossoms held in place her train length nylon illusion veil with a short over-veil of illusion. She carried a white Bible, marked with lily-of-the-valley.

Six Attendants
 A sextet of pretty attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Jocelyn Davis, Salem, was the honor maid and Mrs. William H. Oberteuffer, Portland, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Barbara Burke, Claremont, Calif., Miss Barbara Metcalf and Miss Dorothy Withington, Portland, and Miss Elizabeth Waddell, Lebanon, were bridesmaids. They all wore identical floor length frocks of white organza with bandeaux of white flowers in their hair. They carried bouquets of white and lavender summer flowers.

John Peter Crockett, Salem, stood with his brother as best man and seating the several hundred guests were William H. Oberteuffer, John B. Bentley, Richard G. Montgomery Jr., Portland, Robert L. Elstrom Jr., Salem and Richard S. Gehr, Santa Paula, Calif.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Oberteuffer chose a pink shantung costume suit with matching hat and shoes. Pinned to her purse were pink roses. Mrs. Crockett attended her son's marriage in a stone blue taffeta afternoon gown with matching hat of velvet and veiling. Her accessories were brown.

Brown at Home
 The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the county home of the bride's parents, "Nineacres," near Oswego. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mesdames Elmer R. Moller, Harry L. Rafferty, Howard L. Gifford, Harper N. Jamison, Alfred N. Withington, Willard B. Wells, all of Portland, and Mrs. Walter J. Kirk and Mrs. George Schwarz of Salem. Cutting the cake were Mesdames Darrel J. Harvey, Walla Walla, aunt of the groom, Bruce F. Pickett, Salem, Robert F. Moller, Glen Bekins, Richard B. Gifford, F. Harold Young, Olin D. Sharpe and Roy T. Bishop, Portland.

Assisting were the Misses Frances Baum and Jeanne Hoffman, Salem, Patricia Bacon, Meredith Burch, Jean Burgess, Molly Muntzel, Ann Ornduff, Mary Rafferty, Betsy Stelle, Margery Woodworth and Mary Waddell.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Canada the new Mrs. Crockett changed to a brown wool suit with turquoise accessories and corsage of brown orchids. After September 19 Mr. and Mrs. Crockett will be at home in Virginia, where he will be stationed at Fort Eustis.
