Portland Wins 3-2 Despite Only 2 Hits

SEATTLE (AP)—Steve Nagy dropped a two-hitter to Portland's Beavers as the Portlanders got a trio of unearned runs to defeat the Seattle Rainiers 3-1 in a Pacific Coast League game here Tuesday night. The loss snapped an eight-game Seattle winning streak.

Johnny Lindell's home run in the sixth inning gave Hollywood a 3-2 victory over San Francisco's Seals in their series opener. Paul Pettit, $100,000 bonus pitcher, registered his 12th win for the Stars. Sacramento ended a nine-game losing string in defeating San Diego 6-4, while Oakland won over Los Angeles 3-2.

SEATTLE (AP)—Twenty or more hot rods will be grinding at the local Aurora Stadium Speedway Saturday night in the 100-lap Class. A race for the Pacific Coast championship. The top northwest drivers will be gunning for the title taken last year by Bob Donker of Everett and the year before by Les Sutton of Portland.

Mill City Wins

MILL CITY (Special)—The

Those lovers of the bow and arrow, who had quite a time for themselves in the Salem Jabberwalkie Club's first annual invitational shoot last weekend, don't confine themselves merely to tournament shooting over the year. Many are expert hunters—and it will be noted that when the special seasons are in effect many a modern Robin Hood comes home with a prize. Fact is, hunters can more rightfully be called sportsmen when stalking the quarry with bow and arrow for the animal is provided with much more of an even break. You have to be a wise, wise ninner, skilled in the art of stalking, in order to get close enough to the wary game for a clean bow shot.

One of the most prominent archers in these parts is a veteran bow-puller named Russ Jones. One of Russ' chief claims to distinction was the privilege of doing some British Columbia hunting with fame Howard Hill a year or so ago. Hill, you know, has appeared in lots of movie shorts plus doing the arrow work in such as the Robin Hood films. Jones himself is so good at the trade that it's no trick for him to snap down a jumping, bounding jack-rabbit with one twang of the string. His trophy room is loaded with evidence that the archer hunter can enjoy fine success . . .

Did you note the familiar name that popped up in the Industrial Softball League along with season? Yep, Hank Singer and couldn't resist getting out there to test his still capable mound magic against enemy hitters. Singer, you know, announced several years ago that he was definitely calling it quits after a long and glittering hurling career in the local City League—and he said definitely! But like so many others he weakened when the nice warm summer time came along . . . Another in the same category is longtime Catcher Pete McCaffery, who stepped down from the City loop, only to pop up with the Firemen in the Industrial circuit . . . Speaking of the softballers, there'd better be some new pitching blood showing up one of these days. Looking over the list of top local hill artists, you'll find most of 'em to be seasoned vets—in the game for a long time. One of these days these gents may be wanting to retire to the sidelines. And what would leave quite a void since pitching is the core of the game.

How's The Weather Up There?

Such might be the question asked by Twink Pederson, mighty-mite second sacker of the Salem American Legion Junior team as he looks up to Bill White, six-foot, six-inch Salem Senators outfielder. The two posed for the picture this week as both teams worked out together at Waters Field. The Capital Posters are to play in the Northwest district playoffs at Yakima next Sunday. The Senators are now in Yakima for a regular W.I. League series.

DICK YOST More Polish All the Time.

WENATCHEE (AP)—Baseball fans chipped in $2,600 Monday night in opening a drive to save the Wenatchee club from a financial stranglehold. The cash is to meet the Friday payroll.

The fans were told $40,000 will be needed to assure Wenatchee's team in the Western International League in 1953.

Mayor Art Pohlman, who also is club president, described the Wenatchee Chiefs as just about as low financially as they are in the W.I.L. standings—where they are in last place, 30 games off the leader's pace.

He said the baseball corporation is $14,000 in debt. Manager Dick Adams said it will take $40,000 to clear the club's debts and handle the signing of the class A league caliber of players for 1953.

Debut Must Be Paid

Pohlman said all debts will have to be paid by the first of the year or the club will be out of business in this city of 14,000.

About 200 fans attended the open meeting of the stockholders. After expressing support of the baseball team, they filed up to drop $2,600 into the kitty. Most of them took preferred stock for their cash.

In addition, a $1-a-year club was started. Fans will get membership by payment of a dollar yearly.

The average attendance at Wenatchee games has been around 600.

Caps Top Vics; Spokane Wins

By The Associated Press

Vancouver's Capitanos evened their Western International League series with the leading Victoria Tycos Tuesday night with a 2-0 victory behind the tight twirling of Bud Guidberg. The loss cut Victoria's margin to 1½ games as the runnerup Spokane Indians took the measure of Lewiston's Broncs by a 3-1 count. John Conant pitched the Spokane triumph, giving only four hits in getting his 12th win.

Last-place Wenatchee pounded out a 10-6 decision over the Tri-City Braves.

Dave Dahle notched his 11th victory for Wenatchee.

Kahut Still Battling—in Other Parts

Joe Kahut, the onetime Golden Boy of Portland prize rings, is now devoting his time to "beating the bushes." Past his prime, the Woodburn gladiator—always a great credit to the fight game—fell from the role of top fan favorite in the Rose City when Harry Matthews came along. Now Joe is picking up some shekels fighting in the outlands. First it was Prineville and next it will be Pendleton. The one hope here is that Kahut can sense when it's time to quit. He's too nice a guy to end up walking on his heels. . . . Talking of Matthews, expect his next bout—the first of his "comeback"—to take place in Portland. Canny Jack Hurley figures his Athlete can still pack 'em in there despite the blot put on the Matthews record by the lethal Mercurio wallops . . .

Salem Legions Leave Friday, Billings First-Round Foe

Now in the process of adding final touches to their workouts, Salem's state champion Capital Post No. 2 American Legion Junior baseballers are to depart Friday for the Northwest district playoffs at Yakima with the champions of Washington, Idaho, Montana and Hawaii. The double-elimination tournament at Yakima, in Parker Field where the Western International League games are held, will get started

Sunday afternoon—and Salem's first-round opponent will be Billings, Mont.

Salem and Billings clash at 2 p.m. Sunday and at 6:30 the host Yakima club battles Payette, Ida. Walpahu, Oahu, champion of Hawaii, drew a first-round bye and will play the winner of the Billings-Salem game in a third contest Sunday night. Drawings were announced Tuesday by Owen Carpenter, tournament manager.

The local squad will depart from the Southern Pacific Rail road station Friday at 8:50 p.m. It is likely that a large turnout of parents and other well-wishers will be on hand and Capital Post asks that as many of its members as possible show up to give the kids a rousing send-off.

Coach Vince Genna has had the squad out for daily workouts all week and reports all hands as being in top shape for the forthcoming Yakima playoffs. If the Salems can win their way through the double eliminations there, they advance to regional finals at Denver, Colo., the following weekend.

Genna had the team at Waters Field before last Sunday's Senator doubleheader with Lewiston, and the C-P kids picked up pointers on pitching, infielding, catching and outfielding from the professionals.

Salem won the state tournament last week by defeating Eugene. The Dalles and Lincoln High of Portland in the local playoffs, and became the first American Legion Junior baseball team from this area to win a state title since back in the early 1930s.

Card Rookie Blanks Cubs; White Sox Lose

NEW YORK (AP)—Rain ruined the Major League schedule Tuesday, washing out the opener of the Brooklyn-New York Giants series and the New York Yankee-Washington night game to leave both leaders' margins intact.

The St. Louis Cardinals popped up with a fine rookie pitcher in Stuart Miller who shut out the Chicago Cubs with six hits, 1-0, in his big league debut. Recently recalled from Columbus of the American Association, the 24-year-old right-hander became the first Card pitcher to get the route since Vinegar Bend Mizell beat Boston July 31.

Giants 2 Away

The win enabled the Cards to creep closer to the idle Giants who now are only two games away in second place. Brooklyn, however, still is nine games in front of the Giants and 11 ahead of St. Louis.

The Dodger management quickly rescheduled Tuesday night's rain out for a day-night doubleheader Wednesday. The Boston at Philadelphia game, also rained out, became part of a twilight-night doubleheader Wednesday. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Dyck Homers Twice

Jim Dyck provided the main excitement in the American League with his two home runs for the St. Louis Browns that beat Chicago 3-2 in 11 innings. Dyck's first homer off Chuck Stobbs tied the score in the eighth. His second off Harry Dorish won the game.

The New York-Washington postponed game became part of a doubleheader Wednesday. Detroit at Cleveland also was rained out.

Philadelphia nipped Boston, 4-3, in a 13-innings night game on Billy Hitchcock's single that scored Gus Zernial. Clyde Volmer's two-run homer in the eighth tied the score at 3-3.

The loss dropped the Red Sox 5½ games behind the idle Yanks while the A's climbed within 7½ games of first place.

Pederson Winner Over Sakata In Hot Armory Mat Main Event

Eric Pederson came out of the grudge mat mainer with Mr. Sakata the winner last night, but neither the arrogant blond or Referee Ben Sherman is today a popular item with the customers who watched the hard-hitting brawl.

Sherman got into the midst of the melee at its finish when he was forced to give the match to Pederson. Eric had his pet full nelson on the struggling Japanese-American and it looked like curtains. But Wally Tsutsumi, who had also wrestled on the card before acting as Sakata's second, bounded into the ring to apply a Ju Jitsu hold on Pederson, forcing him to break the nelson hold.

Then when Pederson lit into Tsutsumi, ramming him into a ring turnbuckle, Sakata roared back to apply a salvage Judo chop and a hip lock hold. The fans figured this would win for the popular Sakata.

But Sherman finally got the gladiators separated and awarded the win to Pederson. It was all he could rightfully do, even though it went over like a mess of poison oak with the biased clients.

Sakata won the first fall with

Rally in Ninth Falls Short; Deyo Homers; Collins Loser

PARKER FIELD, Yakima—(Special)—The Yakima Bears stifled a Salem Senator rally in the ninth inning Tuesday night to wrest a 6-5 W.I. League victory over the visitors in the opening game of their series here. The Senators had two runs across and the tying tally on base when Bob Savage, who went all the way for the Bears, got Dick Bartle on a fly-out to left field, ending the game.

Bob Collins was the loser, lasting less than five innings. He gave up five runs and walked nine in his stay. The loss broke a victory string of six straight for Collins. The Bears had a 5-0 lead after three innings. The last Bear run came off young Wayne Rick in the eighth, after he had replaced Ted Edmunds. Ted had succeeded Collins and had blanked the Bears. But he went out for a pinch-hitter in the seventh.

Salem got two runs in the fifth on Jim Deyo's third homer of the season, two walks and Hugh Luby's single. Another run was scored in the seventh on Gene Tanselli's triple and an error. Luby and Bill White smacked in the ninth inning runs.

The loss failed to drop the Senators from fourth place in the standings. The teams play again Wednesday night.
