Campers Enjoy Varied Events At Silver Creek

The warm, sunny days have been wonderful for swimming at the YMCA district girls camp at Camp Silver Creek. Five of the beginner's class passed from the Tadpole to the Frog classification, including Karen Roskoff, Judy Panther, Karen Covert, Nancy Marggi and Paulette Talbot. Eleven girls now in the Fish Club are Mary Wood, Donna Hamman, Ann Morrison, Barbara Morris, Joan Haefle, Sally Osko, Susan Brasher, Gretchen Kitzmiller, Karen Ringnald, Marilyn Zeller and Anne Boudreau. They will take their Flying Fish test for higher honors sometime during the week. Swimming instructor is Ted McIlvenna, assisted by Barbara Smith . . .

Several harmonica players are learning their notes well enough to play simple melodies. Among the harmonica musicians are: Patsy Stevenson, Stephanie Kurtz, Caroline Smith, Linda Moore, Karen Roskoff, Judy Panther, Anne Boudreau, Betty Jean Dyke, Janet Davenport, Sally Osko, Karen Cox, Janice Jacobson, Edwina Fitzgerald, Karen Covert, Barbara Brooks . . .

No Visitors Sunday
Camp life went on as usual Sunday since parents were requested not to visit. There was the regular Sunday services, led by Gus Moore, in the morning and a full program of handicraft, riding and swimming in the afternoon. Harold Somerfield, aquatic director of the YMCA, staged a very interesting canoe demonstration. A humorous skit, "Sunday Canoeists", was staged by Sharon Truax and Frank Shafer. Demonstrations of various swimming strokes were given by Shirley Wilcox and Roberta Eyre. There were also diving contests and a greased watermelon contest in which 17 campers participated . . .

Fun Night Saturday
Saturday evening was Fun Night and the campers had a hilarious time dressing in a wide variety of costumes for the banquet at which the Counselors were KPs. Following the banquet was a talent show which featured the following numbers: Piano solo by Bob McDowell, a play entitled "The Fatal Quest", staged by the kitchen crew Jim Person and Bob Snyder and the swimming instructors Ted McIlvenna and Fritz Welland. Joan Kleinke played her clarinet accompanied by Georgianna Criswell. Susan Brasher did a tap dance and Judy and Jean Hewitt sang a duet. The "Hillside Hillies" sang a number entitled "A Guy is a Guy" and the Silver Creek Dancing Girls, Barbara Gerlinger and Gretchen Kitzmiller, danced and sang "Ray Oliver, Charles Hudkins and Dan Moore put on a skit "How the Bees Buzz". Alice and Mary Vinton danced the Charleston and little Nancy Beth Marggi sang. Mary Vinton played her accordion, Wyetta Capps played the piano and Fritz Welland gave a demonstration of KPs wiping up tables. A clever "Spike Jones Pantomime" was presented by Joan Kleinke and Georgianna Criswell. Judy Bancroft played a piano solo . . .

A special demonstration by the Junior First Aid Class, under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Marggi, and harmonica numbers by the class, coached by Barbara Smith, were given at the flag lowering ceremony Sunday evening . . .

Neighbors of Woodcraft Thimble Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. Roy McEvoy, 1365 Pearl St., Thursday for a 12 o'clock no-host luncheon. Mrs. L. C. Mitchell will be the assisting hostess. After a business meeting the group will sew for the fall bazaar . . .
