Gen. Haskell, War Relief Director, Dies

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP) — Lieut. Gen. William Nafew Haskell, who supervised the relief of millions of victims of World War I, died Wednesday—his 74th birthday—at Greenwich Hospital. He had been ill many months.

His military career extended over 40 years until his retirement in 1942. During World War I he was chief of operations of the Second Army in France.

Haskell devoted much time to the relief and rehabilitation of areas and people devastated by war. As director general of Allied relief operations under Herbert Hoover, then head of the American Relief Administration, Haskell supervised the rehabilitation of peoples in Rumania, Russia, Greece and Armenia between 1919 and 1923.

tors and criminals who created by their acts of violence a threat to Egyptian life and property.

Naguib said any attempt at disturbance will be considered by the army to be high treason and the penalty of high treason is known—death under the Egyptian criminal code.

Two workers died in a hospital Wednesday night, raising the toll from Tuesday's riot to seven; two Army soldiers, one policeman and four workers.

and punish them with extreme measures.

The government said 25 others were injured.

It expressed determination not to be sidetracked by labor troubles now from its announced policy of social and land reforms.

Maher and Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib, the strongman who put him in power, dealt a one-two punch against rioting.

Maher announced the on-the-spot court inquiry in a communique.

Then Naguib, in a statement, said the riots were started by trait-

Egypt Orders Death Penalty For Agitators

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Egypt's strong-arm reform government Wednesday night ordered the death penalty for riot agitators after announcing seven persons had been killed in labor demonstrations outside Alexandria.

Premier Aly Maher hustled a military court to Alexandria to seek out the riot-rousing elements
