

Crops Survive Hot Weather

CORVALLIS (AP)—Oregon crops suffered little if any damage in last week's hot weather, the weekly report of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Weather Bureau stated Wednesday.

Local hail damage was reported, as was some sunburn on walnuts. Harvesting progressed normally. The western Oregon barley crop was found to be exceptionally good.

Generally fair weather was forecast for the rest of the week, with some chance of scattered showers

Manslaughter Charge Due

PENDLETON (AP)—District Attorney George H. Corey said Wednesday a manslaughter charge will be filed against John V. Montour, 46, in the death of Mrs. Ellen Downs, 35.

Mrs. Downs, Montour's friend, was found badly beaten. She died Sunday. An autopsy disclosed that a blow on the head killed her.

Friday or Saturday in the western part of the state. Some afternoon thunder showers were seen for the eastern part of the state. These should increase through Saturday.

Robert Skibinski Wins Promotion

Robert U. Skibinski, 2855 Doughton St., has been selected for promotion from major to lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Skibinski participated in action on Saipan, Tinian and Guam. Born in Eugene, he is a graduate of the University of Oregon. Married to Adeline B. Skibinski, he has a daughter, Barbara, who is six. He is working with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Salem.

The Mississippi River surface between dikes at New Orleans is normally about 3 feet above the average level of the city's streets.

Total of 550 Scouts Attend Summer Camp

A total of 550 Boy Scouts attended the Cascade Area Council's summer camp, Scout Executive Gordon Gilmore reported Wednesday.

"Final tabulation of scouts and explorers attending camp during the four-week program convinces us that this summer's camp was the most successful season the council has had," Gilmore said.

The record total this summer topped last summer's figure by at least 20 scouts.

in Marion, Polk and Linn counties. Features of the camp this summer were swimming instructions, boating, a weekly water carnival, hikes and weekly instruction in wild life management and conservation by representatives of the Oregon State Game Commission. Robert Skibinski inside

J. C. Penney KOG Display Publicized

KOG — Keep Oregon Green — got a nation-wide boost when the house organ of J. C. Penney Co. published a picture of a KOG window in the Salem store. Dressed by Darrel Jahn, store display man, it featured prevention of forest fires using materials from the forest service and the KOG association.

Instrument Tests Conducted at Salem Airport

New tests of the instrument landing system now being completed at McNary Field were made Wednesday by inspectors of the Civil Aeronautics Administration from Seattle.

It is planned that later checkup will include an inspection by a United Air Lines plane.

The testing Wednesday was made in a two-engine Beechcraft by James Rudolph and Charles Stacey. They were checking particularly for minimum clearances in the landing approaches.

Heider Family Hurt in Wreck

An Air Force sergeant, his wife and small son, enroute from Salem to Hunter Field at Savannah, Ga., were injured late Monday when their car struck loose gravel and overturned near Hailey, Idaho.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. Douglas Heider (nee Mary McCormick of Salem), who incurred a concussion and still is hospitalized. Her husband, Sgt. Douglas Heider, incurred cuts and bruises. The son, month-old Mark Douglas, escaped with minor lacerations.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heider of Salem, parents of the sergeant, have gone to Idaho to be with them. The sergeant recently returned from Okinawa from which base he flew 24 missions over Korea.
