On Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. How does a married woman sign her name to documents?
A. A woman who was born Ruth Clark, and who married James Taylor, would become Ruth Clark Taylor, and should sign her name that way, or as, Ruth C. Taylor. The prefix "Mrs." is used only in a letter to a very slight acquaintance or a stranger, and always this prefix is enclosed in parentheses.

Q. When writing a social letter, is it proper to close the letter with "Respectfully yours"?
A. No. This form is used for business letters, or when an employee is writing to his employer. If the person is of equal social position it would be better to close the letter with "Sincerely yours."

Q. When helping oneself from a dish that is passed at dinner, which contains both a fork and a spoon, which does one take in the right hand?
A. The fork is taken in the right hand, the spoon in the left.

Surprise Party At Mason Home

JEFFERSON — A surprise garden party honored Mrs. George C. Mason and Miss Addie Libby Saturday evening at the former's home on Main Street. The occasion, planned by members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, honored their many years of faithful service to the church.

Mrs. Mason, whose late husband was druggist here for many years, will be 84 years old on October 12, and has been a member of the Jefferson Methodist Church for the past 40 years, holding many offices in the church and woman's society. Miss Libby, who was 81 years old July 22, has been a member for more than 30 years, teaching a Sunday school class for many years. She is city librarian.

Antlers hung from the big trees on the lawn lighted the garden. The Rev. Elwood Dull, pastor, gave a short talk of appreciation for the loyal support given the church through the years by Mrs. Mason and Miss Libby. Mrs. W. F. Gulvin, president of the W.S.C.S., announced the program numbers, and read a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hadley, former pastor and wife, who could not be present. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fitzsimons sang two duets. An interesting part of the program was a Bible quiz in which Miss Libby scored one hundred percent.

Mrs. Helen Caywood presented each honored member an appreciation scroll which she had painted in the illuminated engraving style parchment. Before leaving, the guests signed these scrolls.

Art Work Display At Festival

ASHLAND—Art work of a very unusual kind is being combined with drama and music at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival this season.

An exhibit of nationally-known paintings of Shakespearean scenes by Virginia Blair, Monterey, Calif. artist, went on display in the festival amphitheatre last week and will remain on exhibit through August 30, when the festival season ends.

The paintings are mosaics with painted ceramic tiles forming the basic units.

Miss Blair, who studied at Chicago Art Institute, became interested in ceramics through her sister, Barbara Blair, well-known California potter. She was also interested in Shakespeare and the theatre and the unique work is the result. The paintings have been on exhibit throughout the United States.

Miss Forsythe, Dr. Hanson Married

Of interest to the many Salem friends of the bride is announcement of the marriage of two missionaries, Miss Irene Forsythe and Dr. Perry O. Hanson, which took place in Portland on August 8 at the Calvary Presbyterian Church.

The bride went to China in 1926 under the Presbyterian board of foreign missions and Dr. Hanson was a missionary for over 40 years in the Shantung province for the Methodist board of foreign missions. Both, who had been serving in the same general area, were held by the Communists as spies, along with several other American missionaries. It was just a year from the time of their release that they were married.

The wedding ceremony was actually a religious service, with no bridal procession. The bridal party took their places informally on the front pews. Officiating were the Rev. Byron W. Travis, the Rev. George R. Comley of Salem, and the Rev. Earl K. Fenton, Woodburn.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, E. C. Forsythe of Salem, currently on vacation from Red Cross work in Japan. The attendants were the bride's niece, Miss Margaret Forsythe, Salem, Miss Judith Forsythe, Pendleton, and flower girl was Sara Jane White, Union, a grand-niece.

Dr. Kenneth Scott Latourette of Yale University and last year's president of the American Baptist Convention, was best man.

The couple will reside in Iola, Kansas, for the ensuing year.
