

Mrs. Wilbur Fiske Daily Jr. (Lucille Durst) whose marriage was an event of Saturday night at the First Presbyterian Church in Portland. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Fiske Daily of Portland, formerly of Salem. (Logan Maricham Studio).

Daily-Durst Vows Read

Of interest of Salem friends is the marriage of Miss Lucille Durst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Peter Durst, Portland, and Wilbur Fiske Daily Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Fiske Daily Sr., formerly of Salem and now of Portland. They exchanged their marriage vows at the First Presbyterian church in Portland on Saturday evening with the Rev. Lem P. Putnam officiating at the 8 o'clock ceremony. Baskets of white gladioluses and larkspur decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an eggshell white satin dress fashioned with full court train, with a deep chantilly lace yoke on the bodice, which extended to form a lace panel down the front of the skirt to the hemline. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a cap of heirloom lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Thomas Wayne Mummy was the honor attendant for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Merrill, Mrs. Thomas Trotta and Miss Dolly Withington. They wore French blue organdy redingotes over blue taffeta, and blue net eyelet veils. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of crimson gladioluses. Flower girl was Maurine Mummy, niece of the bride.

Richard Jones acted as best man and seating the guests were William Swindells Jr., John Bentley, William Daily, Richard Montgomery and Leonard Greer.

The bride's mother chose a lilac faille afternoon dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Daily wore a light green taffeta afternoon dress. Both mothers wore purple orchid corsages.

The wedding reception was held in the Green Room of the Portland Golf club. Mrs. Althea Drillon, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Rosa Eckhardt poured. Mrs. William Swindells and Mrs. Kenneth Bell of Salem, aunt of the groom, cut the cake.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a mauve wool suit with navy blue accessories and pinned to her jacket was a white orchid.

Following a trip to the Oregon beaches, the newlyweds will make their home in Portland at 930 Northwest 25th Place.
