It will close Friday night with the big fat-stock auction.

Banick's lamb was reserve champion. Banick also showed the champion pen and the champion ewe. (Picture on page 1)

Tito Seeks Joint Military Deal With Greece, Turkey

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Premier Marshal Tito Wednesday openly expressed for the first time his hope for military cooperation with NATO members Greece and Turkey and said he thought it would come about soon.

The Yugoslav chief said, however, that he would avoid signing any formal military pact with those two countries since to do so would act on Russia like waving a red flag before a bull.

Tito, in another important disclosure, also indicated Yugoslavia's willingness to accept a compromise solution to the quarrel with Italy over control of the head of the Adriatic Sea.

Both steps have been urged on Tito by the United States which has been supplying him with military aid against the threat of possible Russian aggression.

Korea Combat Pay Decided

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army said Wednesday it plans to add $45 to the August pay of front line soldiers in Korea if they spent six days in combat in July.

The money, which will be paid out in a few days, will be the first of the $45 a month combat pay recently approved by Congress. The Army said it couldn't estimate at present how many men will get the additional cash this pay day.

Several hundred thousand men who have gone off active duty will be eligible for back combat pay, since Congress made it retroactive to June, 1950. The Army said application forms for this back pay will be available at post office windows throughout the country by Sept. 15.

Ping Pong Ball Raft Stuck on Shoals of French Officialdom

MARSEILLE, France (AP)—An American student's dream of drifting across the Mediterranean on a raft floated by 75,000 ping pong balls ran aground Wednesday on the shoals of French officialdom.

Maritime authorities ruled the square adventure craft named Kentooki was too flimsy to put to sea.

After eyeing the raft on which 23-year-old Richard Miller of Chicago had hoped to find marine adventure they decided that not only would Miller life and those of his companions be endangered but the raft itself was a menace.

China Premier Visits Stalin

MOSCOW (AP)—Red China's premier Chou en-Lai visited Prime Minister Stalin in the Kremlin Wednesday night. It was regarded here as more than a courtesy call.

It was recalled that Stalin took a personal hand in the negotiations leading to the conclusion of the Russian-Chinese treaty of 1950 and it is considered likely that he is keeping in closest touch with the Chinese-Soviet talks going on here now.

Diplomats believe Wednesday night's visit may be only the first of many Chou will have with the generalissimo during his Moscow stay.
